A Short Explanatory Preface to "A THOUSAND ANCESTORS"

Tabular pedigrees are of two sorts. There is the genealogy of a Family, House, or Name, which spreads fan-wise downwards, from a single patriarch to his many descendants. It is a male genealogy—daughters, on marriage, are plucked from the bough, and only the wives of the line male are grafted into the stem. It is really more the descent of property than person. There is also the Pedigree of blood, a record of the heredity of an individual rather than of a clan. Here every mother is of equal importance with every father, and two parents, four grandparents, eight g-g-parents, sixteen of generation five, and so on, have to be regarded as equally entitled to record. It is evident that a pedigree of this type fans out upwards at so rapid a rate that its practical recording must be limited to relatively few generations. I have attempted ten generations of the ancestry of my children (and of my sister's). At the tenth generation there are 512 direct ancestors plus 511 connecting links. Some of the 512 figure more than once owing to kin and cousin marriages amongst their descendants—so I have called the undertaking "A Thousand Ancestors."

So far as I know there is only one previous attempt on these lines in accessible print; (a twelve generation descent of one of our princes in, I think, an earlyish issue of the Genealogist), so I have had to devise a technique; not so complicated as to induce nervous prostration, nor so abbreviated as to strip all the flesh from the dry bones. That adopted is as follows. One "bottom" chart, printed in blue, carries the ascent four generations, to eight g-g-parents. Each of these forms the basis of a "middle" chart, printed in red. These eight middle charts carry the ascent to 64 progenitors (of generation VII) and each of these, in turn, starts an "upper" chart, printed in black, which carries the ascent to the tenth generation—the arbitrary limit that I have set myself. Actually there are two blue "bottom" charts, because it happens that MY sister married MY WIFE's brother and that, consequently, both families of children have the same ancestry, tho' "looking-glass" to each other.

Information personal to individuals which exceeds the accommodation of their "squares" will be found, as far as may be, on the back of their charts. I make no effort to transcribe matter from sources easy of access; D.N.B., G.E.C., B.L.G. (Landed Gents)—County Histories and such. In fact I am careless about big fish, my wish is safely to preserve the tiddlers. In addition to the charts there is an annotated Index to families (theoretically 512) where will be found any references to origin of information which is common to the family as a whole, a certain number of notes, Will abstracts, Chancery and other Proceedings and so forth. As these notes are chiefly meant for practised genealogists I have been less precise in reference than would be desirable in a final edition: "Groves Musicians," for instance, ample for the experienced, will not find the book for the novice in the General Catalogue at the Museum. Obvious refs. Peerages for a Peer and such I omit altogether.

I try to note the Arms used by the family, but quite without prejudice to right or wrongful use. The whole question of the use of arms is well threshed out in "The Ancestor"; and well summarised by one of the pundits, whose verdict finds "all that is of value in heraldry on the far side of the Tudors." As soon as real arms, borne on real shields, in real battles, degenerated into the "science" of Armory confusion became worse confounded owing to the deplorable veniality of past pursuivants, who, presumably, now parade the hottest corners of Hell, warmly clad in double-duffle tabards of the "achievement" of His Satanic Majesty.

The Hollander ancestry was worked out by my father (L.H.B.) who went to infinite trouble to secure certified copies of register entries. The English pedigree has been built up by me during the last thirty odd years; with assistance from my sister (H.L.B.) in the earlier stages.

Of the cloud of witnesses who have helped me by correspondence it would be invidious and impossible to single out pre-eminence. I can but extend to all my most real and sincere thanks and say that the painstaking and laborious care volunteered by complete strangers has given me a better opinion of folk in general than I held before. As reverse to this pleasant picture there is a small minority who take no interest whatever in their own people; and, incredible though it seems, there exists a minute minority who are actively obstructive—of whom one hopes that their own records will be as completely forgotten as those of their ancestors of whom they seem ashamed.

The Scots descent is merely skimmed from books, is not original, and, probably, not very accurate. Scots genealogy is utterly beyond me. I had, of course, meant to revise my work before submitting it to criticism, but failing health keeps me from libraries, Somerset House, the Record Office and everywhere, so I am obliged to let it go as it stands. My objects are two. One to avoid the risk of total loss of the work of large bits of two lives by successors too ignorant or too unimaginative to realise the value of personal history. The other to enlist the help of other genealogists. Amongst the more than thousand readers of the Genealogist's Magazine must be specialists who can help me out of most of my uncertainties. Between so many there ought to be someone who has made a study of each obscure family that is giving me so much bother. It's not a cheap method; but though I hope that these papers may be of use to others, also I hope that others will be of help to me. I have had to limit myself in print, to information directly relevant to my own enquiry. In many cases I have notes relevant to other branches or families of the name, which are entirely at the service of those who care to ask for them.

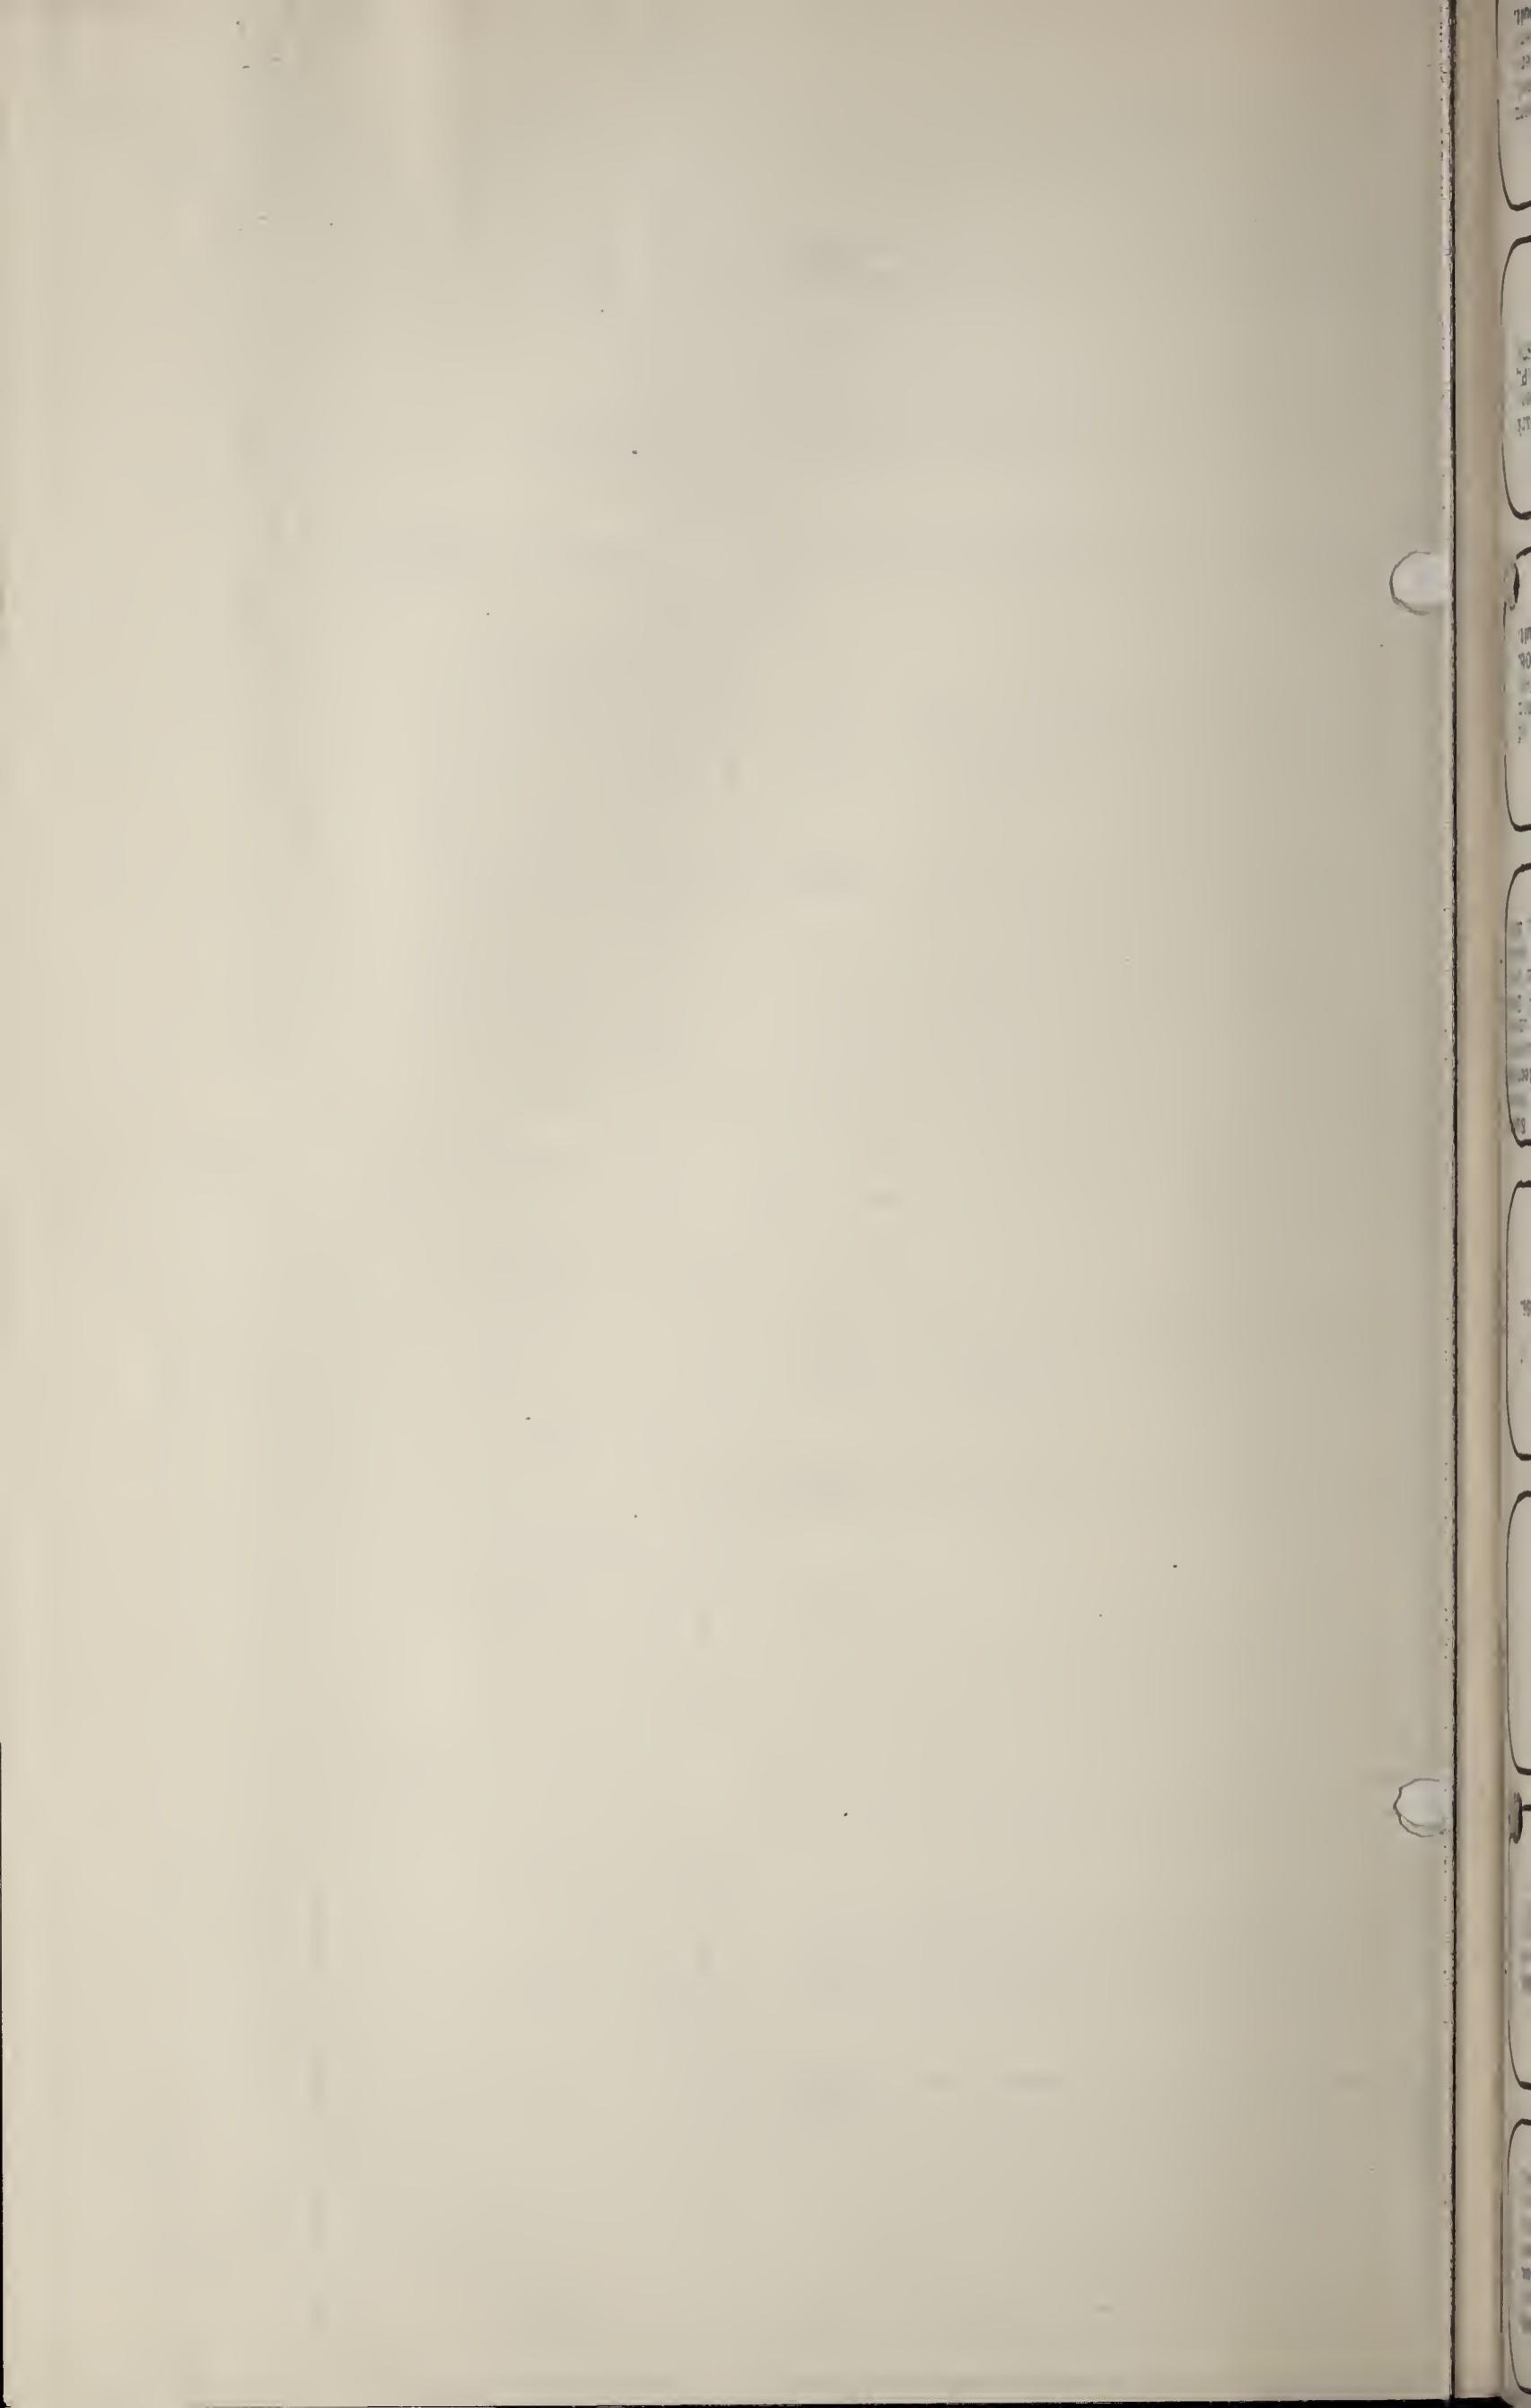

Of course I have no hope of ever filling every "space"—apart from the estopper of illegitimacy which can hardly be avoided amongst so many—no ordinary person can look to trace every ancestor of the tenth generation. Still, with your help, ladies and gentlemen, it would interest me to see how far a very ordinary family of the lesser noblesse could be "fitted out with forbears" as New York is supposed to phrase it.

VI/3. Created Baronet 22nd of January, 1784, or 1st December, 1783. A Whig Politician. Ed. at Cath. Hall, Combridge. B.A. 1758. M.A. 1761. D.D. 1773.
Purchased the Manor of Bokesell or Bowesell in Kent. Will July 1786. Resided Farnham, Surrey. When offered choice of Baronetcy or Bishopric for political services rendered is said to have replied "Baronetage now, Bishopric later."
Death, however, frustrated his ambitions.

VI/4. Geboren te Amsterdam 25 June, 1695. Overleden aldaar 6 Mar., 1750 (H.L.B. notes). Algenen Nederlandsh Familielad Sept. Oct. 1893, p. 213. Britsh and death dates and place of burial from Paris pedigree. Nederlandsh Schedboek refers to burial "in het buitenland"—in that foreign place.

VI/7. In this day there were only some 300 families in this huge parish which stretched from Durham to Sunderland. Gents. Mag. 1769 (p. 58) D.N.B.

VI/8. There is something wrong here; the marriage is certainly recorded under the above date and it seems also certain that Rich. Stonehewer did not die before 1769—even an error of a year will not reconcile these dates. Perhaps the entry refers to Eliz. the da. and has mistakenly given the mother's name, or her sister's (also Margery). (Yes—quite obviously I should say July 34).

VIII 24

SUSANNA Will 15th June 1715, pr. Wells 1715 mentions da. Eliz. Walker and son in law John Walker, but note that Eliz. might be child of a previous marr. though as the other 3 daus.
mentioned are all Bournes it is most improbable.

IX 48

GILBERT BOURNE. Of Roade.
Under 16 in father's will. Will. pr.
1686. It is not certain that he is husband of Susanna and father of Eliz. but see letter 18/12/23 from

IX 77

LEONARD GALE.

Nat. 1626 at Sevenoaks, Kent. Aged 16 or 17 when his parents died. He also got "the plague" but recovered. Was left with £200 apart from the share of his only remaining brother. Was an iron master and at first lost money but in 30 years "got" £5000 to £6000 and at 43 married and with his wife "got" £500 and one year's board with her. At the age of 66 had £16000. His advice to his sons is amusing—he did not indulge in the virtue of charity respecting his neighbours. Ob. 1690.

PHILIPPA GALE.

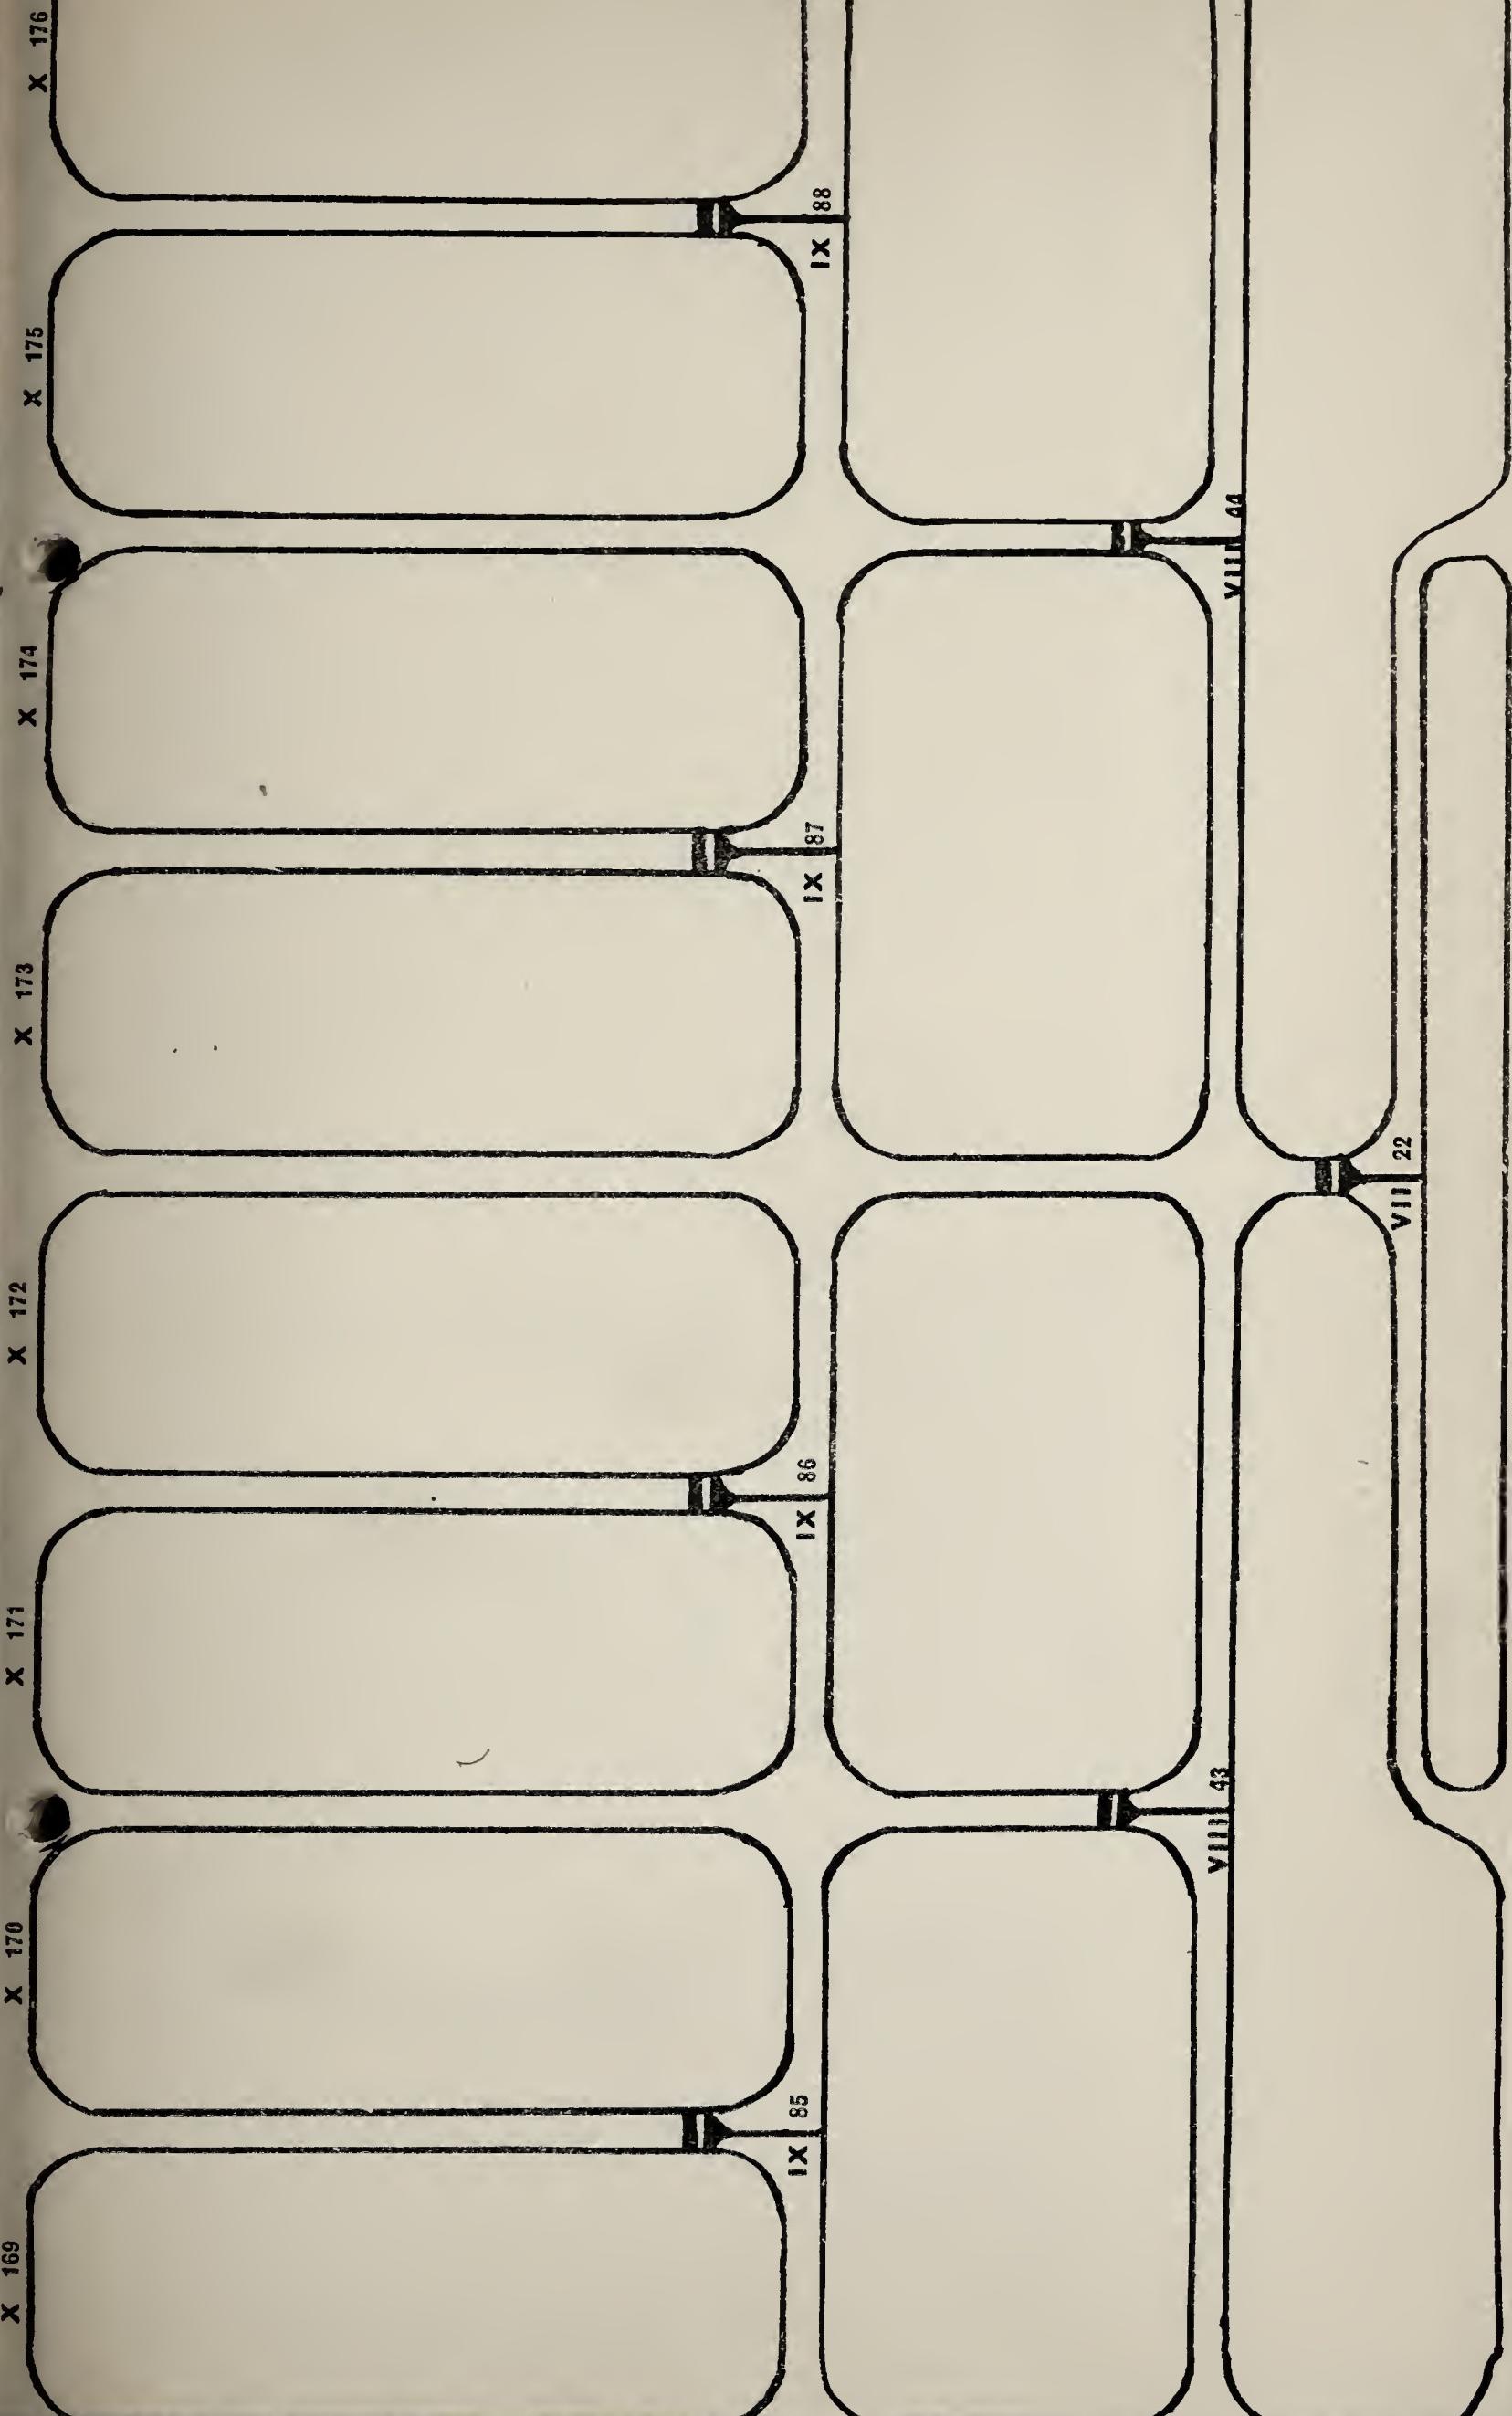

Nat. 12th Nov. 1673. Of Crabbat, Sussex. M.P. East Grinstead 1710-13. Aged 17 at his father's death. Went to Univ. Coll. Oxford 4 years. In 1697 called to the Bar but mistrusting his abilities in that direction retired to manage his estate. In 1698 bought Crabbat par. Worth for £9,000. At Michaelmas 1725, being aged 52, was worth "at a moderate computation" £40,667. He left his property "worth £1100 a year," equally between his three daus. The Clitherows got property at Crawley and Steyning—and eventually more on the death of one of the co-heirs. Ob. 24th June, 1750.

VIII/39. Leonard G. writes in his diary "Aug. 19th 1703 being now 30 years old I married with Mrs. Sarah Knight my mother's sister's only da. after I had made court to her 2 or 3 years; by her I had a plentiful fortune. We were married in the parish Ch. of Charlwood by Mr. Heskett the Rector." From other entries it was evidently a love match however.

IX/79. He marr. 1st Mary d. and h. of Thos. Aynsecomb, Rector of Cowden and patron of Wadhurst, which he gave to Wadham Coll. Oxford, 16th Sept. 1660 (his pedigree is given). Note that there was a contemporary—Richd. Knight of Cowden, Kent, gent. bach. 30 and Sibilla Gilbert of East Grinstead, Sussex, widow, circa 25, at Wittingham or Fletching, Snssex or Lingfield, Surrey, 25th Mar. 1648." (Jos. IX/134. The parentage of Pennington Goodeure is not quite established, though from the uncommon combination of names it is fairly certain who her parents were. It is, however, possible that she was born before their marriage. The conduct, at least of the main line of the family, seems to have been extraordinarily scandalous, even for a period of loose behaviour, and appears (there will never be certainty) to have led to the assassination of Sir John by his younger brother, Samuel, Capt. R.N. (of most indifferent reputation in the Service), what time a guest on his brother's ship. Capt. Samuel was hanged in 1741. The whole story is the wildest melodrama and all that is certain is that Samuel at any rate deserved his fate—even, if possibly, he finally killed in self defence. (See D.N.B.)

IX/133. In 1727 he was made Judge of King's Bench, Attorney Genl. to Duchy of Lancaster, and on 14th Oct. following called to the degree of Sergeant at Law, and afterwards made one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas. Originally Member of Middle Temple. Admitted 1713 Lincoln's Inn. Called 12th Feb. 1714/5. Treasurer 1716. Keeper of Library 1717. Dean of Chapel 1718. Was Serjt. Oct. 1727. M.P. Bereslston 1705/8, Truro 1711. His elder brother was a notable lawyer and created 1st Earl Cowper. Spencer Cowper, who subsequently became a judge was charged at Hertford assises in July 1699, before Mr. Baron Hastrel, with the murder of Sarah Stout a beautiful Quakeress, who had fallen madly in love with him, notwithstanding that he was a married man. She pursued him with her attentions until, finding her love hopeless, she threw herself into the millstream behind her home at Hertford. As Spencer Cowper had, the evening before the body was found, been in her company, the Quakers, desirous to save their sect from the stigma of suicide, charged him with a hideous complication of crimes. The case was laid before Chief Justice Holt, who at first dismissed the accusations as absurd, but was afterwards induced to commit the suspected man and three others for trial. At the trial Spencer was ably defended by his brother William, who subsequently became Lord Chancellor, and was acquitted. He resumed his practice in the Law Courts, sat in House of Commons, and rose to be a Judge in the Court of Common Pleas. It is said that he "presided on many trials for murder; ever cautious and mercifully inclined, remembering the great peril which he himself had undergone." Spencer Cowper's grandson was William Cowper the Poet.—The Genealogical Magazine, Vol. I. p. 127.
Note—His M.I. incorrectly says he died 1727. It is in a chapel N of chancel, W well. For an adverse account of his trial see Harleian Miscellany (1809) II, p. 251. He inherited Hertford Castle which he sold to Joseph Collett.

X/265. "Was one who with the Earls of Shaftesbury and Huntingdon, with other Lords, presented reasons to the Grand Jury of Middx. 16th June 1680 for the indictment of James, Duke of York, for not coming to Church." "23rd April, 1695 he was nominated by the House of Commons one of the 24 principal members to examine Sir Thomas Cook and to inspect into bribery and corruption."

JAMES GRANT. Of Rothiemurchus, co. Inverness.

Thousand Ancestors

A Jersey family (Genealogists Mag. X.319). Norfolk name since days of Queen Mary (Guppy, Homes of Family Names). Edmondson's Heraldry gives only "Amye. Cambs. Or. On a chief embattled sable 3 mullets of the first" and "Amys. Essex. Argent: on 2 bars gules 3 mullets of the first." Paver's Marr. Lic. gives (only ref.) "John Froggat, gent. Staveley, co. Derby and Eliz. Amy (?), spinster, 21, York. At Darfield or Darrington, 1672"—but, in fact, the marr. took place at Staveley, 12th June, 1672, and in the reg. the bride is "of this parish." She is elsewhere called "dau. of a Merchant of the Isle of Jersey." Her sister Charlotte marr. Rich. Miles." "She (Eliz.) remarr. George Milnes of Unthank." Note suspicious likeness between Miles and Milnes. Julian or Julius AMY (descended of the Abington, Cambs.—not Abingdon on Thames—family) apprenticed 17th March, 1619 to Phil. Careless, Wollen draper, at the Halfmoon, Cannon St. for 9 years. "son of John 'Miles' (i.e. Knight) of London." Father's bond in £200. Free of Drapers Coy., 7th Nov., 1627. "of Aldgate, by the pump." Pays quarterage 1628/30. Jos. Foster's "London Marr. Lic." gives "Amy Julian, draper, and Eliz. Hunt of St. Bennett, Gracechurch, London. At St. Anne and Agnes, London, 7th Feb., 1626/7" (also refs. to Robt. Ame 1546, Saml. Amy 1666 and Saml. Amy 1723). After 1630 he is "not ?-?-?" in the Drapers books (illegible). No W. or A. in P.C.C. 1630/40. Assuming the Cambs. and Jersey families related if Julian the draper were shrewd enough to use his family connection to deal specially with Jersey he might well be looked on as "a Merchant of the Isle." Chris. Atkinson of Escombe, co. Pal. Purchased Hagghouse and Caddenfield jointly with Parkinson. "Caterhouse is the southern moiety of the Hagg, which was allotted to Atkinson on the petition of 1567. In 1580 Chris. A. devised to his second son Chris. who died seized of Caddenhouse or Brome Park within the manor or grange of Hagghouse." Was father of Chris. Atkinson. 2nd son Ob. 8th Mar. 1597. Inq. p. m. 31st Apr. 39 Eliz. Was father of Thos. Atkinson of Cater-house. He "left 3 daus. his coheiresses in 1647". One of whom was Anne. (q.v.).

Surtee's "Hist. of Durham" IV. 145. May have been of Yorks family (Genealogist XXXII. 261) or or Northumbrian border stock (B. L. G. Atkinson of Lorbottle) but had been long resident in Durham intermarrying with the haute bourgeoisie.

D.N.B. gives very full biog. Francis Atterbury. Rector of Middleton Malsor, Northants, father of Lewis Atterbury Student Ch. Ch. Oxford 1647, Rector 1657 Middleton Keynes, Bucks. (near Newport Pagnell. Do not confuse the two Middletons). Drowned 7th Dec., 1693. Left 2 sons. Lewis Atterbury. 1656-1731. A rather notable ecclesiastic. Marr. Penelope dau. Sir Robt. Bedingfield Lt. Mayor of London 1707, left Bedingfield Atterbury and Mrs. Sweetapple (married dau.) Francis Atterbury 1662-1732. Bishop of Rochester. Exiled Jacobite and died in France (but sepult. Westminster Abbey privately). Marr. Kath. Osborn and left a son Osborn A. and a dau. Mrs. Morrice. Books on him by F. Williams 1869 and H. C. Beeching, 1909.

L. Effingham (and Amee Lawrence) de Forest have pub. (New York 1933) "Descendants of Job Atterbury" which gives a good view of a Northants yeoman gentry family breeding sons generation after generation in vast quantities—whose subsequent careers are mostly untraced. J. Foster's "London Marr. Lic." "Lawrence Atterbury of St. Martins in Fields, saddler, bachelor, abt. 38 and Eliz. Poynter, same spr. abt. 34, own dispose—at St. Nich. London or St. Martin aforesaid 23rd Dec., 1661." But, what is almost certainly his will, (an irregular and unwitnessed "declaration") says his wife is dead and seems to have no children. Dated 19th Apr.. 1677. Admon P.C.C. to John Atterbury brother 27th Feb., 1677-8. This brother John might be father of Susan —she had a brother John referred to in Godin Wills. P.C.C. Wills. Lewis Atterbury D.D. Rector of Milton Keynes (refers to his father Francis A. Rector of Milton in Northants "where I was born"). pr. 13th Feb., 1692-3. Lewis Atterbury L.L.D. Pr. 13th Dec., 17(31 ?). Francis A. sometime Bp. of Rochester; pr. 10th May, 17(32 ?). All 3 wills full of detail.

BACON

Philip is probably of the Norfolk. Hickman Bacon Bart. family—or perhaps of the Bacons of Shrubland Hall descended of Edward B. by Helen Luttel. Mary dau. of Sir Edmund 4th Bart. of Gillingham married Philip Bedingfield towards the end of the 18th Century Arch. Hunts (Hitchin) 2nd May, 1713, John Baldwyn of Ashwell admn. to Ralph Baldwyn gent. brother.

Ditto will of Thos. Baldwyn of Ashwell, Herts, gent. To nephew John Overall who now lives with me all my—lands—. 50/- for bread among poor of Ashwell. To servant George Sabey five guineas and all my china. Residue to said nephew except two guineas to my Exor. John Trottman of Ashwell, yeoman. Said nephew John Overall joint exor. 2nd March, 1764. Wit. John Firby, Thos. Squier, John Trottman. Pr. Arch. Hunts (Hitchin) 11th January, 1768.

Phillimore's Herts. Par. Reg. II. "Ardley. Mr. Jonathan Baldwyn. b. marr. 27th June, 1715 Mrs. Susan Godfrey of Ashwell". Herts. co. Sessions Rolls. I. 438. "Recognizance of Sarah Barley to answer for stealing . . . belonging to Mary Baldwyn, widow, 1696 (probably Mary, widow of Ralph B. who ob. 1694), ditto 285 "the Robery money collected in the . . . of Martha Coppin of Kaddington £10, 1677. ditto II 4 lists of copy—and freeholders with estate of £10 a year. Henry Baldwyn gent. of Watford, 1699, ditto. II. 5 Mrs. Baldwyn Ashwell. (probably Susan Godfrey).

Thomas Baldwin of Buntingford par of Layston Herts wollen draper. To poor of Layston 40/-. To wife Ellen for life all lands copyhold and freehold the remainder in reversion to Thomas Baldwin my eldest son and his heirs in default to son Ralph and his heirs in default to son Humphrey and his heirs in default to son John and his heirs in default to son Charles whom failing my heirs. To each of my sons Thomas, Ralph, Humphrey, John and Charles £200 at 20. To dau. Jane Baldwin £240 on marriage or 22. To dau. Mary and my dau. Margaret to each £150 on marriage or 22. If any of my sons die his portion between other sons. And if any dau. die her portion amongst surviving daughters. To brother John Baldwin and to his dau. Eliz. each 20/- for a ring. To John Burgoine formerly my servant £5 and to Wm. Hewes now my servant 20/-. Appoint Ellen Baldwin sole Executrix and to have residue. Dated 23rd Feb., 1650. Witnesses Thos. Crowch, Wm. Rogers, Wm. Edrydge. Proved P.C.C. 20th Mar., 1650/1 by Hellen Baldwin. Note.—Although spelt Baldwin not Baldwyn he might possibly be the father of Ralph Baldwyn of Ashwell (Will 12th Aug. 1693) who mentions brother Humphrey decd. and sister Margaret. The most convincing feature is that the said Ralph in his Will gives 'to the poor of Ashwell and poor of Buntingford 50/- each.'

12th Aug., 1693 Ralph Baldwyn of Ashwell, Herts., gent., to be buried in par. ch. of Ashwell near deceased son John. To poor of Ashwell and poor of Buntingford 50/- ea. Hellen and Margt. die their share between all my surviving children. To son Jonathan Baldwyn for life of my wife annuity or rent charge of £20 out of my manor of Wigfrith, Herts. All my manors to be charged for said legacie. To said Trustees my mess. etc. in Ashwell in occupation of Joseph Berkenshaw to be sold and applied for payment of legacies. To son Ralph for his life subject to rent charge above and other charges all my manor of Stanbridge, Beds. and lands at Steeple Morden, Camb., and manors, etc. of Therfield, Herts. and manor of Wigfrith and lands in Sandom, Herts. and lands in Ashwell and in Southill Beds. and after determination of said estate for life of said Ralph B. to John Griffin and John Buxton in trust for said Ralph B. and after his decease to the first son of R. B. and in default to second, third, fourth and other sons and heirs, male and in default to my second son Thomas B. for life and his sons and in default to my third son Jonathan and in default to my son William B. and in default I devise estate in Ashwell lately purchased of John Clarke, gent, and now in my own occup. and other land in Ashwell heretofore the property of Wm. Plomer and now in my occup. to my dau. Mary B. and her heirs for ever. Residue of lands manor, etc., I leave to descend to my right heirs provided always that it be lawful for Ralph and his son Thomas and Jonathan to grant out of said manors, etc. £100 p.ann. for such woman or women as they take for wife. That Mary my wife may pay said £1200 out of per.est. to two daus. Hellen and Margaret. To said Trustees my lease from St. John's Coll., Camb. of lands in Ashwell for my heir at law. To sister Margt. Baldwyn £5 and £5 to the two youngest sons of late brother Humphrey B. To Trustees four guineas each p.ann. till heir at law is of full age guardianship of heir at law to Ralph Freeman yr and said trustees. To friends Oliver Sell 20/- for ring. to Henry Sell of Hinckworth £3 to Wm. Windresse 21/-. Wife Mary Executrix. To son Ralph my silver tankard and my seal ring which was my father's All my law books to be in the custody of son-in-law Wm. Holgate, gent., till my eldest son or some other be a clerk or practice the law to friend John Keyling, Esq., five guineas and to loving friend Mr. John Trice of Godmanchester for the use of his poor dumb kinswoman £4. Witnesses Ju Willymott, William Henry Thomas Pickings. Proved P.C.C. 22nd May, 1694 by Mary Baldwyn relict.

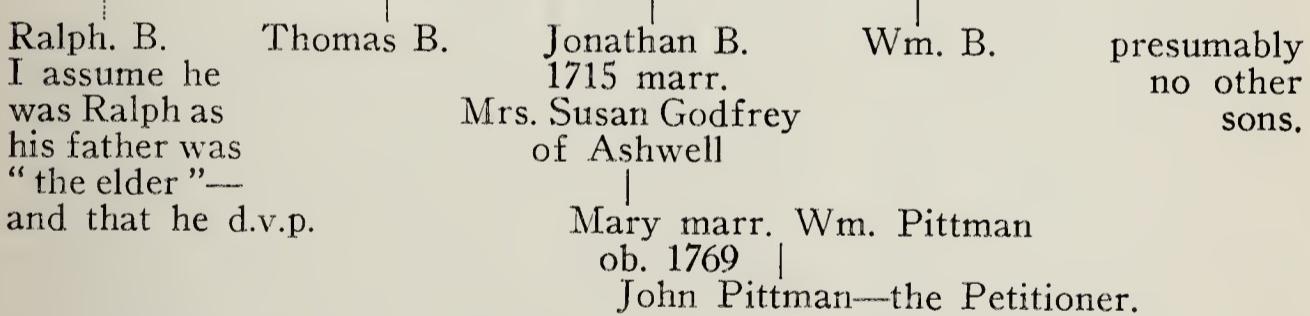

BALDWYN.

Will of Jonathan B. of Ashwell co. Herts, dated 15th Jan., 1719. To each brother and sister a guinea ring. Rectory and parsonage inappropriate at Wilshampstead and property at Ashwell to wife Susanna—who sole ex. Witnessed John Phips, Sarah Mann (her mark) Sam. Luke. Pr. P.C.C. 31st Oct., 1739 by Susan B. widow of the decd.

Will of Wm. B. (of co. Berks) late of Newington Butts co. Surrey, dated 30th Dec., 1755. To nephew (sic) John Pittman of Market St. all real estate—some of which by virtue of a late Decree in Chancery awarded against Jacob Stone and others—also personal estate. Witnessed Wm. Pittman, J. Paitfield, Su. Baldwyn. Pr. P.C.C. 13th June, 1758, by John Pittman, clerk, nephew of decd.

Pittman v. Baldwyn. Chancery Proceedings. Div. IV bundle 42. (Index "Whittington and Sewell") John Pittman, Clerk, of Cheddington co. Bucks petitioner (1st Apr., 1766) rehearses—That in 1756 a concord was made between (1) Thos. Baldwyn of Ashwell co. Herts. gent. (2nd son and one of the devisees under will of Ralph B. the elder late of Ashwell—whose will dated 12th Aug., 1693 (2) Wm. Baldwyn of Tattenhoe co. Beds gent. (since deceased—4th son of aforesaid Ralph B. and a devisee) (3) Lewens Boldero of Gough Sq. London, Esq. (4) Edward Gold Boldero, the younger, of Gray's Inn, gent. (5) Wm. Pittman, D.D. etc., (since deceased) (5) the Petitioner (eldest son of Wm. P. by Mary his wife and great nephew and heir apparent of said Thos. B. and Wm. B.) (6) John Overhall of Ashwell, yeoman, (one of the nephews of said Thos. B. and Wm. B.) Ralph B. left entailed property to Thos. B. and Wm. B. which seems to be in enjoyment of Thos. B. now aged about 80 and "through age and infirmity very weak in his mind" and liable to the influence of his bailiff by whose advice he has been cutting down timber and threatens to grub up an orchard and plough up old grass lands if he chooses (amusing letter quoted in extenso—he certainly was in possession of some faculties). Thos. is without heirs male—and appears to be unmarried. Petitioner prays that he may at once enter into estate of which he is in expectation on demise of Thos. B.

Ashwell par. regs. do not start till 1686 (Corresp. Aug. 1934). Kensworth par. reg. "Mary (sic but certainly error) bur. 1769 from Caddington, mother-in-law to ye Rev. Doct. Pitman. Vicar of Kensworth." From these various sources we have the tolerably certain genealogy—

Thos. Baldwyn of Buntingford, Herts. Woollen draper. Will pr. P.C.C. 20th March, 1650-1. (he had a—probably elder—brother John B. who had a dau. Eliz.)marr. Hellen (who proved his will) and left—Thos. B. (eldest son.) Humphrey B. 3rd son (ob. ante 1693 leaving—inter alia—2 younger sons mentioned in will of their uncle Ralph.) John B. 4th son and Chas. B. 5th son (both living 1650) and Jane, Mary and Margt. (all under 22 and unmarr.) and also Ralph Baldwyn 2nd son of Tetwick House near Baldock. Possibly a lawyer. Will pr. P.C.C. May, 1694. He marr. Mary—(who proved his will) and left John B.

(eld. son ob. v. p. aet. (aged) 18. 9th July, 1689. Sepult. Ashwell.) Ralph B. (2nd son apparently ob.s. p. ante 1766) Thos. B. (3rd son aet. circa 80 in 1766. Will pr. Arch. Hunts Jan., 1768. Evidently ob. s. p.) Wm. B. (5th son of Tattenhoe, co. Beds. gent. Will pr. P.C.C. June, 1758 by John Pittman, Clerk, Ob. s. p.) Mary (marr. Wm. Holgate). Eliz. (marr.—Overhall of Ashwell yeoman) Ann (marr.—Boldero of London gent. but H. A. Pitman says (corresp. March, 1934) "Ann 1675-1726 3rd dau. of Ralph B. of Ashwell; marr. John Godfrey without issue; and secondly Thos. Kentish of Baldock. Apothecary) Susan, Penelope, and Hellen and Margt. (both under age in 1693) also Jonathan Baldwin 4th son of Ashwell who marr. Susan Godfrey—q.v.

(Note. If John, eld. son nat. 1671 and Thos. 3rd son 1686 most of the daughters are probably elder in the family).

BANISTER, BANNISTER, BANESTER

The family seems to originate in or near Preston, Lancs, but there was a Lincolnshire and also a Northants family who may—or may not—have been offshoots. Also there was a numerous colony in business in London—they do not seem to have been a real London family but were probably cadet sons of all three families. They traded, notably, with the West Indies. Harl. Soc. Pub. XV. (Visitn. of London 1633/5) gives William Banester of Preston co. Lancs marr. Ellen; and had (1) Richard (who left issue) (2) Thos. B. of London, gent. marr. Anne Ordway and had dau. Anne. This is headed "Queenhith Ward" and is signed Thos. Banester No Arms. Also Alexander Banyster of Epworth, Isle of Axholme (Lincs.) whose son Henry B. of Stow. Lincs. (ob. Pontefract) marr. Anne and had John B. of London, Grocer. (Eldest son, Sarah and Margt. This is headed "Farringdon Without". Signed John Living 1634) marr. Ellen dau Robt. Cox and had Mary; Anne; Eliz; Banyster and quotes Arms. Argent a cross fleury Sable. Crest A peacock proper (not "in his pride"). Genealogist V. 308 (Visit. Lincs. 1592) quotes—Banester of the Bank in Lancs had a ninth son Alexander B. of Epworth. Isle of Axholme who marr. Anne dau. William Strangwisch of Strangwisch Hall, co. Lancs. (i.e. Strangeways) and left Henry B. of Beckingham Lincs. and 3 other sons and 2 daus.

curious coincidence—another is a Becket-Usher marr. in 1598 in Wilts (Genealogist NS. IV. 69.)

There was a Visitation family in Wilts (Marshall. p. 40) and another in Devon (Vivian's Visit. Devon Westcote's Devon, Visit. London I. 3.)
which with other obviously improbable refs. I omit. The West Riding seems to have been overrun with Beickets of low degree—mostly dissenters in religion. Whether they were moving downwards from the Croston family or upwards from primal chaos, their XVII and XVIII century condition was so low as to be hard to trace—and, in this favoured land, you can trace almost anyone who isn't an actual tramp. The arms Gules, a Fess between 3 boar's heads couped erminois were granted with the Baronetcy and are a Heralds "adaptation" of those of the Devon family. The Baronetcy was conferred on the new capitalist for resisting (very rightly of course) the unruly violence of his late Labour comrades.

the provision that she took the name of Denison on coming of age.
As she marr. at 19 she had many names; Maria Beverley as a girl.
Mrs. Edmund Beckett from 19 to 21. Mrs. Denison (or Beckett-Denison)

BENT

No information. Described "of London".

This was a modest Gentry-Yeoman family of Hereford and environs. It claimed descent from Ithell Vaughan—whence the cognomen ap Ithell—Bithell (which latter is the commoner spelling in older documents). The story runs that two cadets went to London to better their fortunes and there became protegees of Blanche Parry (whose M.I. at West End of St. Margts. Westminster) that remarkable woman who was part tire woman, part magical familiar, and perhaps, part State adviser, to Queen Elizabeth. Possibly she also came out of the West and was sort of sib to the young men. At any rate to one she seems to have left her manor of Risse in Holderness. There the fortunate courtier and his descendants rose far above the condition of their kin of the elder line until they too, towards the middle of XVIII century, were reduced to a last survivor without heir male. This gentleman, the story tells, journeying in his coach, stopped at an Inn and, chancing to walk round the yard, was surprised to find another coach bearing arms identical with his own. Asking the Host for introduction, he made the acquaintance of the owner who turned out to be a Bethell of the West. Kinship having been established, this latter became heir to the very considerable Riss property—where his descendants live to-day. The early origins of the Hereford Bethells are difficult not through want but through over abundance, of materials. They covered the land—a few as “Gent.” and “Esq.” many as “Yeomen” and more as tradesmen in the towns and labourers on the land. There is said to be a Collection of Welsh Descents made by John Salisbury; the M.S.S. of which in the Wyrinstay Library (in 1856) but I've not seen it.

Bethell is a widely distributed name and—as Ithell was a not uncommon name—they are probably largely unrelated. I therefore omit obviously irrelevant matter.

"Hist. of Chiselhurst" by E. A. Webb, G. W. Miller and J. Beckwith Arms Gules; a fess within a bordure argent.

"Genealogist" IV. 145 for B. of Cornwall from whom, perhaps they came. "Virginia Heraldica" Wm. Armstrong Crozier. Arms (from tomb of Anne Bland) "Or. 3 demi-lions rampant gules." But Va. Her. gives "Gules; a bezant between 3 demi-lions rampant Argent."

This was a Beverley (Yorks) family—or/and perhaps of Selby nearby: probably a cadet of the much more distinguished family of Gt. Smeaton. They rose in Virginia to nabobs of almost immense wealth and were of the few families who really ran the Colony and intermarried almost wholly with each other.

The whole of the Beverley pedigree and of the Beverley wives prior to Robert father of Robert who married Maria Bland is taken from the Beckett family bible where it was inscribed in 1848 by "R.M.B.". "from papers in my possession." He adds "I suspect that John Beverley who married Mary Dalton is the same who was afterwards Knighted and fought on the Royal side in the reign of Charles I. Major Robert Beverley was the first of the family I believe that went to America. In the early part of Charles I st's reign Sir Wm. Berkeley was appointed Governor of Virginia by the King and about that time Major Robert Beverley emigrated from England; the family at that time being settled in (sic) the principal branch of it, at Selby in Yorkshire. Robert Beverley the author of the History of Virginia published in London 1722 says when speaking of the Reign of Charles I" "the Constitution being thus firmly established people began to lay aside all fears—several gentlemen of condition went over with their whole families, some for bettering their estates, others for religion etc." "This Robert Beverley was the son of Major Robert Beverley. Major Robert Beverley was perhaps brother of Sir John Beverley. My great grandfather whose Christian name I do not remember realised a large fortune and was about to return to England but his wife refused to leave the country. The family therefore remained at Blandfield in Virginia where they still reside. The present proprietor is Robert son of Robert my father's youngest brother.

My grandfather Robert Beverley was educated at Wakefield Grammar school, was also under the instruction of Dr. Croft of Beverley and was at Trinity Coll. Cambridge, as also was my father though he did not take a degree there—and so was I. My grandfather was cousin of General Washington and related—though in what degree I know not to Bishop Posteas." initialled R.M.B. 1848. Elsewhere in a foot note the above "R.M.B." also says—"Of the Selby branch of Beverleys, Sir John Beverley was noted amongst the Yorkshire cavaliers in the civil war of Charles Ist's reign. He was conspicuous in defending Pontefract Castle and suffered in consequence in his estates. It was the design of Charles II to create him one of the Knights of the Royal Oak—an order which the King devised to reward his adherents."

In the Beckett bible the connection from John Beverley born 1656 to Major Robert Beverley is drawn in red ink. The more ancient part of the pedigree appears to have been written in and this joining line in red connects it onto the more recent. Does this imply doubt as to the connection ? ?

| Grandfather | & | Grandmother |
| William Beverley | | Eliz. Bland |
| Father | & | Mother |
| Robert Beverley | | Maria Carter 1762. |

W. Beverley married first Mary Midgley, 2nd Mary Coltman, then follow with their marriage twelve other children, Maria, Robert, Carter, Byrd, Munford, Lucy, Peter Randolph, Anna Munford, Mackenize, Evelyn, Jane, Bradshaw(?) Harriot.

The accepted pedigree is that Robert son of Robert son of Robert married Maria Bland but I feel sure the above is more trustworthy because (1) "Maria Bland" is an easy corruption being the wife's surname in one generation and Christian name in the next. (2) because a child's name is "Carter" (note also in this connection the confirmation of the "Byrd" marriage and the evident fact that an ancestor was a Munford). (3) because the omission of a generation is always likely. (4) because of the evident age of the paper containing the notes. (5) because of confirmation p. 728 of these notes. A note of H.L.B.'s—without context—elsewhere referred to Burke Landed Gentry (Early). Motto. Ubi libertas ibi patria. Arms. Erm. a chev. sa, on a chief of the 2nd 3 bull's heads cabossed arg. Crest. A bull's head erased arg.

Extract (not vesbatim) from the letter of Wm. Beverley of Bladford Essex co. Virginia. "The first of the name in the colony of Virginia settled at Jamestown about 1660 and from thence moved to Middlesex. He was a long time clerk of the House of Burgesses, a lawyer by profession and a prominent actor in Bacon's rebellion, commanding, I think, the King's troops as Major. I have never heard the name of the lady he married in Hull England. I have heard she was the daughter of a merchant of that town. He brought her to Virginia with him. For a more particular account of this individual I must refer you to the 3rd Vol. of Hennisy's "Statutes at Large" from p. 541 to the end. You will there see an authentic account of some of his services and persecutions. You will also find in Vol VIII of the same work p. 127 an act which gives, I presume, the only true account of the male branch of the family now extant. The Act was obtained by my grandfather for the purpose of changing the entail from an estate in Drysdale parish King and Queen county (where the Historian lived and died) to one of more value in Culpepper. His son Robert the Historian marr. (I have heard)—Byrd of Westover and had William marr. Elizabeth Bland the sister I have heard of the distinguished Col. Richard Bland of the Revolution, and had Robert marr. Maria Carter of Sabine Hall whose son Robert marr. Jane Taylor of Mount Cherry (?) Richmond.

The Beckett family Bible itself gives the descent as follows:— Major Robert B., Robert B., Robert B., and queries this generation Robert B. marr. Maria Bland. I feel sure the correct descent is therefore Major Robert B., Robert marr. Byrd, William marr. Eliz. Bland, Robert marr. Maria Carter, as this gives the same number of generations—and for reasons stated. This amended descent is conclusively proved by American sources—see refs. Oliver's "Beverley." Alderman "Wm. Beverley, Esq."

Virginia Mag. of Hist. and Biog. (Pub. Virginia Hist. Soc.) II 405 III 47, 169, 261, 383. Major Robert's will is sealed with "quarterly, in the first quarter a rose "and Wm. B. expressly (p. 52) disclaims the bulls head coat and says that the arms used by his father were "a red rose seeded and barbed in a field ermine with an Unicorns head for ye crest." The arms on Ursula (Byrd's) tomb are Erm. a rose gules barbed and seeded ppr. ("Virginia Heraldica" Wm. A. Gozier N.Y. 1908—copy in Br. Mus. which also refers to the seal and will and gives the seal of Maj. Robert's will as "quarterly argent and gules a rose counterchanged barbed vert"). Guillim (1727) gives (as his only ref. to the name) Erm. a rose gu. barbed and seeded ppr. Edmondson's Editn. (1780) of Glover (circa (1590?)) gives—among others (12 in all) (Yorks.) Arg. on a bend between 2 unicorns heads erased ar. three fusils of the field. (Yorks.) Erm. a rose gu. barbed and seeded ppr. Quarterly arg. and gu. a rose counterchanged barbed vert. (Yorks.) Ar. a chev. sa. on a chief of the second three bull's head's cabossed of the first. (which latter were the arms of B. of Gt. Smeaton at Glover's and subsequent visitns.)

From the evidence of the arms it is obvious that Major Robt. was not of the B's of Great Smeaton as "R.M.B." supposed. Who the other Yorks B's were I am at present unable to discover but I surmise that they were either no relation of the Great Smeaton family or very distantly related since the arms of the bulls heads had been borne for some generations. Had Major Robt. been trying to "affiliate" himself improperly to a family he would surely have chosen the more distinguished one of Great Smeaton, not the almost unknown family (said to "of Beverley") using the Rose arms. Whether these used the quarterly gu. and arg. and the erm. rose arms indifferently I do not know Robt. Mackenzie Beverley (see B. L. Gentry) used the 3 bull's head's caboshed arms to which he was not entitled.

Arms, Argent a cross Sable voided of the Field. 5 estoiles in cross between 4 lion's rampant; all of the second. Misc. Gen. et Her. I, 125 and 251. Sir Hy. B. of Sison co. Glos. eld. son Sir Hy. B. Ld. Mayor of London circa 1560. Arms and ped. for several generations. A branch of the Salop family. No Wills or Admons. of Fr. B. 1656-7 or 1643-7 in P.C.C. No Glos. wills—a few Worcester. There is a P.C.C. will 1655 of Thos. B. of Shipley co. Salop. gent. Refers. to testrs. father Wm. B. of Shipley gent. who is the sole legatee and exor. Freeholds in Shipley and copyholds in H(?)ilton in the Manor of Morffield vel Morvile, co. Salop. Date 20th July and pr. P.C.C. 2nd Oct., 1655 by the father. The Stow-in-Wold Ch. Regrs. are missing 1655-1707. It is expressly stated that the Billingsley who was wife of Rich. Stonehewer was "dau. of ...Billingsley of Stow-in-Wold who was heir at law to Vernon Gloucestershire." (I think the Gloucestershire refers to ... Billingsley; because Sir. Thos. Vernon is of Haslington co. Chester.)

Now Harl. Soc. Pub. XXVIII gives a Visitation pedigree of Billingsley, which can be amplified by a very full M.I. recorded in fol. 367 Britt. Mus. Add. M.S. 21237. The inscription is as follows—
Mont. Ins. at Astley Abbots (2½ mile N. of Bridgenorth) to Fr. B. of Astley. Major for K. Chas. d. 5th Mar., 1656. He was s/o Fr. B. Col. for K. Chas and was slain at Bridgenorth nr. here 31st Mar., 1646 and of Elianor his wife da. Thos. Kerry of Binweston Esq. Which Fr. was son of Fr. B. of Astley who was bd. 1st June, 1643 by Bridgett his wife d/o Sr. Thos. Vernon of Haslington co. Chester Kt. whose father was John B. who md. Frances da/o Will Acton of Aldenham and descended from the Billingsleys of Billingsley co. Salop (5 miles S. of Bridgenorth.) Eliz. ye only d. Ed. Latham Bach. at Law relict of Major B. erected this 1660. Their children (1) Francis, (2) Edw. (3) Rupert (4) Lewis, (5) Chas. (1) Eleyat (decd.) (2) Bridgett (3) Elianor (4) Eliz. (5) Margt. (decd.) (6) Dorothy.
By combining the two we get—Wm. B. who was father of Wm. B. who marr. Ciceleye and was father by her of John B. of Astley who marr. Frances dau. Wm. Acton of Aldenham and had Francis B. of Astley (Sepult. 1st June, 1643. No Will P.C.C. 1643/7) John marr. Bridget dau. of Sir Thos Vernon of Haslington and had (with 5 other boys and 9 girls, omitted) Fr. B. Col. for K. Chas. Killed Bridgenorth 31st Mar., 1646 (no P.C.C. Will 1643/7) marr. Elianor dau. of Thos. Kerry of Bewdweston in Weston. co. Salop (for whom see Harl. Soc. Pub. XXIX) and was father of Fr. B. of Astley. Major for K. Chas. (ob. 5th March, 1656 no P.C.C. will 1656/7) He marr. Eliz. only dau. of Edward Latham, Bach. at Law—who, as his widow, erected the monument referred to. Younger children of Fr. the Colonel and Elianor Kerry were Thos. Walter John, Edward and Dorothy.

Fr. B. the Major and Eliz. Latham had a large family as detailed on the Monument, and one of the daughters could be wife of Richd. Stonehewer but I think Dorothy of the generation before more likely. In the first place Col. Francis is the only person who would ordinarily be described "as heir at law of Vernon" since he was eld. son and left issue. Also the dates fit a little better. Col. Fr. was killed in 1646 his youngest child might be Dorothy who might be only a few months old (or even posthumous) Richard Stonehewer Son of the Billingsley, himself marr. in 1723—probably as a result of his father's death which seems to have been about then—he Richard : Junior—might well be born in the 1790's and if his mother was born about 1646 she would be 44 or thereabout—which seems quite reasonable. The difficulty of accepting a daughter of the next generation lies on the fact that even if Fr. the Major did inherit the Vernon estate (which was probably confiscated) he could hardly be called "heir at law" of Vernon—he was heir at law of his own father. Perhaps search in Cheshire (Ormerods Hist. etc) might throw a side light.

137

This is a family of exactly the same standing as the Bethells. Esq. and Gent. at top—through Yeoman—to small fry. The brother is not to find the origins of Frances but to find her precise parentage. In T. F. Fenwicks (1884) "Visitn. of Gloster 1662" is a vast genealogy of Bond of Newland and St. Briavel's co. Gloster and Walford co Hereford. Wye Seal is an estate in Newland belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Hereford. St. Briavel's Castle is also in Newland parish (which is on the Hereford border) and Walford though just over the County boundary is the adjoining parish. Frances Bond and Richard Bethell were married by License but apparently other than in the prescribed church; and if Fances was 22 she was probably at "own dispose" and no father given.

Richard Bethell and Frances Bond. Correspondence 8th Dec., 1934. 7th June, 1715. Richard Bythell of the City and County of Hereford, miller (pistor) and Thomas Baynham of the said City and County of Hereford, Innkeeper (hospis)—in condition of a marriage between the above bounden Richd. Bythell aged about 25, Bachelor, and Frances Bond of the parish of St. John the Baptist within the City of Hereford aged about 22—to be solemnised in the Church in the License; but the City parish of Rich. Bethell is not mentioned. It is not recorded in 1715 in the following City parishes. St. John Baptist, St. Peter, St. Martin, St. Melisbus, St. Owen, All Saints.

Referring to Fenwick's pedigree our Frances might be (1) dau, of Wm. 5th son of "line B" (2) a subsequent child of George (husband of Mary Perkins) to make up for their dau. Frances ob. 1687 set 14. (3) dau. of Richard of Walford co. Heref. by Anne Philpot. (4) dau. of Edmund of St. Briavels by Mary Hardwick. See also C. J. Robinson's "Manor Houses of Herefordshire" 278. (Cokebury, Coughbury or Cobrey Park—acquired circa 1670 by Edmund Bond of St. Briavels, whose son Rich. B. was High Sheriff co. Heref. 1722). Also Duncomb's "Hist. Herefsh." II 352 and 397.

Bond Hereford City Library has—Edmond Bond of Newlands. 1660. Assignment of Lease, 99 years, at Walford. John Bond. Foy 1660. John Bond. Llangarrer, 1691. *Rich. Wykes Esq. (Dated 2nd Feb., 1623) Pr. (weher?) 5th May, 1624.

John Bourne of Gothelney in Charlinch, co. Somerset. To be bur. Wells Cath. near ancestors. Eld. son Roger. younger sons (all under 16) Henry, Gilbert, and Thos. Daus. Mary; Phillipa; Silvestre; Jane; Frances. sons in law Mr. Stanhope and Mr. Fleming. (dated 14th June), Pr. (where?) 21st Oct., 1656.

Note:—Wivelscomb is 25 m. W. of Somerton and Charlinch 4½ m. W. by N. of Bridgewater—so they are some 10 m. apart.

John Bourne. To be bur. Wells Cath. near father and mother. (M.I. to him "John B. of Durleigh Esq. son of John B. D.D. late Canon of this Church who died 8th Aug., 1651") Names Cousin John B. of Gothelney whose posterity are most concerned with testr's, moiety of Bishops Teignton, which he has sold. Wife's son Mr. Hy. Still and her dau. Mrs. Cotesham, testrs. sister wife of Adam Baynham; sister Anne's children; Cousins Thos. Bishop; Francis Bishop; Francis Carliel; Chris. John Carliel; Francis Cross; Rich. Cross; Philip Cross; Cousin Stevens; Cousin Wykes; Cousin Goodwyn; Sister Carliel, Uncle Jasper Bourne's dau.; Cousins Eliz. and Jane Bennett Martins House at Wells and Chambers in Lincoln's Inn. (dated 21st Aug., 1651.)

Jewer's Note. "His wife was Anne dau. Thos. Baynard of Wanstrow Somerset and of Callerne, Wilts (see Visitation) by Anne sister of Sir Lawrence Hyde of Salisbury. Ld. Chief Justice. Her will pr. 30th June, 1688. She first marr. John Still." As, however, her husband evidently left no issue that is irrelevant.

George Bourne of Clevedon, yeom. 12th Nov. 1668. Dau. Jane wife "as I suppose" of John Maskell, da. Eliz. Maskell, sister Lucy Beakes, wife Joan Bourne, grandson Rich. Maskell son of Rich. M. Inv. £220 5s. 8d. Pr. Wells 2nd Dec. 1668.

Richd. Bourne of Poulton. Nuncupative will 8th May, 1676, names wife and da.

John Bourne of the liberty of St. Andrew. Wells. 30th Dec. 1686. Gives his lands of inheritance in par. of Hambleton co. Hants to bro. Phil. B. Philip B., yeom., of Farley, Hants, exor. Pr. Wells 28th Apr., 1687.

Gilbert Bourne of Rode in North Petherton. 23rd Apr. 1686. Ref. to £1400 due out of £3000 by the will of Roger B., Esq., decd. bro. of testr. Eld. son Edmund B., son John B., wife Susanna. Education of 5 younger children. Pr. Wells 15th June, 1686. Seal; Argt: a chev. gu.

Note:—Edmund Bourne of Wembdon and Ann Gore of Bristol marr. 6th Oct., 1687. (Cath. Regr.)

Jonas Bourne, the elder of Wells. Woollen draper. 1st Sept. 1724. Ref. to son Wm. B., house in High St. called "The Ship"; son Thos. B. the Inn called the Queen's Arms; two cottages in New St., a close called Braindiron in New St., occupied by Geo. Baker, sons Jonas B. and Francis Dennis B. Pr. Wells 6th May, 1726.

Will of Susanna Bourne of Roade, widow. 15th June 1715. Mentions daus. Sarah B., Eliz. Walker, Susannah B., Ann B., and son in law John Walker. Pr. Wells 1715.

From these wills we get the highly probable descent (but needing much verification). GILBERT BOURNE. D.C.L. Wife dead. Will pr. Feb. 1595/6. His brothers JOHN B. Treasurer of Wells Cath. and ROGER B. JOHN BOURNE (son of above Gilbert and probably identical with John of Gothelney—apparently also of Wivelscomb). Wife dead. Will pr. 1656. He had sisters Mary, Jane and Philpe, two of whom married—Goodwyn and Edwd. Wykes, Esq. He also left sons ROGER (dead in 1686), HY., GILBERT and THOS. all under 16 (in June 1656) and daus. Mary, Philippa, Silvestre, Jane, Frances: of whom two seem to have married — Stanhope and — Fleming. The above 3rd son GILBERT BOURNE (is probably identical with Gilbert B. of Rode, North Petherton) in his will pr. 1686 refers to his wife SUSANNA who is probably the testr. of the will pr. Wells 1715 and left EDMUND (who perhaps marr. Ann Gore in 1687) and "5 younger children" of whom one seems to be son John B. From the will (1715) of SUSANNA BOURNE of Roade, widow, these seem to have been Sarah B., Eliz. Walker wife of John Walker, Susannah B. and Anne B.

There were 4 brothers of the second generation sons either of John B. Treasurer of the Cathedral or (more probably I think) of Roger B. They were Roger B. of Wells, Esq. who marr Jane Tothill and whose will is pr. 1624; Jasper B. of London, gent. who left a dau. (mentioned by John B. of Lincoln's Inn). John B. D.D. and Canon Residentiary of Wells. Will pr. 1622 who left issue as below. Wm. B. living 1621/2, dead 1624. His wife was Bridget. John the Canon Residentiary, left John B. of Durleigh, of Wells and of Lincoln's Inn, who marr. Ann Baynard (apparently without surviving issue) and whose will is pr. 1652. The Canon Residentiary also had a son Gilbert and daus., one wife of Adam Baynham; Eliz. Bishop, Eleanor Carliel, Susan perhaps wife of Cross and possibly Anne (married). All except the first had children named in some will.

CLARKE of Garthorp, Lincs. 187 & 189

Many refs. in Index Soc. "Lincs. Wills." Harl. Soc. Pub. "Lincs. Wills." No probable refs. in Pavers "Marr. Lic." Vicar of Luddington (Garthorpe) can find no trace (Corresp.) It is specially recorded that Anne C. was Granddau. of Rich. Brewer and sister of Rich. Clarke. That would have placed her if Rich Brewer's will was not a fragmentary copy—as is so often the case with Lincoln Wills. Rich Brewer and George Stovin were patriots of local distinction who opposed (even to armed riot and imprisonment) the effort of King Chas. I. to take away rights of the "Commoners" of Axholme. Anne had a brother (probably eldest) who is refd. to as "uncle" in will of her son Jas. Stovin. There is a descent of Brewer in "Hist. and Autig. of par. of Hemingboro' co. Yorks" by Thos. Burton (1888) p. 355. but it starts too late by 2 generations.

LINCOLN WILLS, Stow Court, 1691-4. fo 52.

Ruth C. is stated to be "dau. of Anthony Compton of Gainslaw; Berwick-on-Tweed. There is a full ped. in B.L.G. Still until his will or some deed can be found the affiliation is not really proven.

How or why Pitman succeeded to the property of Market Cell (Markyate—a few miles N. of Redbourne, Herts) remains a mystery—the why rather; the how is detailed in Chancery Proc. "Coppin v. Fernyhough." Both Mr. H. A. Pitman and I, have enough material on Coppin and Reynardson to produce a respectable pamphlet—but nowhere a trace of blood tie. Yet the Coppins were of the larger County families and Wm. Pittman was a schoolmaster parson of a small and obscure parish; and son of a baker in Cirencester. The cynical will urge reparation and acknowledgement of a natural relationship—but there is little to point to it. There is another curious point in this Pitman section. Wm. P. son of the Baker of Cirencester was a Scholar at Eton and had to present a Bapt. certificate. The Bursar has kindly looked up the original, which reads. We, whose names are subscribed do hereby certifie that appears by our Parish Register that Wm. the son of John Pittman, late of Cirencester, in the county of Gloucester, Deceased, was baptizized upon the fourth of November in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Two. Witness our hands the 30th day of July, 1713. Jos. Harrison, Minister, Basil Jasper, Bernard Ballinger, Church Wardens.

Which would be alright but for the fact that the real entry in the real register reads—William fils John Pitman 19th March, 1701 (i.e. 1702). That I got first from the Incumbent and later had re-verified by the Clerk who added that Joseph Harrison was Minister 1690-1752. The Cirencester Librarian adds that Basil Jasper and Bernard Ballinger were Wardens and that the alleged entry is not in the Register for Nov., 1700, 1701, 1702, 1703, 1704. So I fear that, anxious to get the boy under age limits, the certificate sent to Eton was deliberately falsified. Mr. H. A. Pitman's discovery of "Coppin v. Fernyhough" has made a mass of notes irrelevant; so I omit them. I shall be glad to send them to any interested person. Nor am I attempting to give notes of other branches of the widespread family of Pitman—Mr. H. A. Pitman is their chronicler.

"Herts. Par. Reg." John Pitman marr. at Knebworth by lic. 1709 to Eliz. Godfrey Note that Wm. Pitman's wife was dau. of Jonathan Baldwyn who, in 1715, marr. Susan Godfrey. Perhaps the earlier connection led to the "Eminent Schoolmaster" (Wm. P.) getting the Vicarage. For Pitman. Citizens and "Gents." of Dorchester see A. W. Gould's

"Municipal Records of Dorchester." Period XVIII Century. Ex Chancery Master's Report (Vol. 558. P.R.O.) 23rd July, 1757 and Vicar Genls. Marr. Lic. we learn that—Thos. Ollyffe. Clerk. Will dated 18-2-1745 marr. Sarah whose will is dated 27-1-1748. They had 2 daus. Sarah who (12th Jan., 1752) marr. Wm. Pittman, D.D. and bore Wm. P. (ob. 1813); Sarah wife of Jas. Underwood; and Mary wife of Saml. Bedford. The other dau. of Thos. and Sarah Olyffe was Mary (ob. 1757) who marr. Jonas Paitfield Mercer. They had Sarah aet 13 in 1757.

The following have some small reference—not worth printing a full abstract—Will of Thos. Coppin, 1663, pr. P.C.C.—Chancery Proc. C. II. 2575/10 "Coppin v. Beauchamp. 1723.—Close Roll. 1735. PITTMAN AND PITTMAN

Whereas William Pittman clerk being seized in fee simple of Diverse freeholds messuage farms copyholds etc. in Cos. of Herts. Bucks and Beds which copyholds etc. he had surrendered to the use of his Will and having two daughters Sarah and Mary by his second wife now Sarah Pittman his widow as also William Pittman a son by the said Sarah his last wife all infants and John Pittman clerk a son by his former wife. He the said William Pittman the father on 15th Jan., 1765 made his Will and after making provision for said eldest son and in part for said Sarah his wife and said son William he devised as follows

Item I give to my dau. Sarah the farm called Wellfarm now in occupation of Robert Sear of Dagnell.

Item I give to my dau. Mary farm at Clements End in occupation of D. Brown.

Item The house at Studham late Towers now in occupation of Benj. Munn.

Item I give her desmesne etc. in Flamstead and Caddington now in occupation of Robt. Byrchmore, Mr. Martyn Mr. Whitfield etc.

Item I give to her farm at Hoglane now in occupation of Hy Geary she paying thereout to her Aunt Mead £10 p. ann. for life house and furniture I now live in etc. and also house Thos. Ivory now lives in.

I leave to my wife etc. to be executrix as proved P.C.C.

And whereas the said William Pittman the testator made no other provision for said Sarah and Mary Pittman his daughters and the said Sarah the mother being satisfied that it was their late father's intention that the farms etc. should be their absolute property releases her title

Now these presents witness that the said Sarah the mother has bargained and sold to said Sarah her dau. the said Wellfarm to have and to hold etc.

And these presents further witness that the said Sarah the mother hath bargained and sold to Mary the dau. the farm of Clements End etc. to have and to hold etc.

In Witness the said Sarah Pittman the Mother hath set her seal 11th Feb., 1766 in presence of Sam. Whitfield and W. Stevenson.

And be it remembered 26th March Sarah Pittman the mother came etc.

Inrolled 27th March 1766.

Coppin v. Fernyhough and others 20th Nov., 1781. P.R.O C.12
124/38.

ORATORS. John Pittman Coppin of Market Cell, Herts, clerk and John Coppin Pittman Coppin his son aged about 16.

AGAINST. Ann Fernyhough, Ann Reynardson, Susannah Rey-nardson, Katherine Leech, Arthur Kent and George Brown.

That by Indenture of lease and release 18th and 19th Oct., 1737 between John Coppin of Market Cell par. of Caddington (1) Sir John Napier of Looton Hoo, Beds. Bart. and Henshaw Halsey of Gt. Gaddesden Herts. (2) and Sir Henry Hoo Keate of Kempton, Herts. Bart. and Sir Samuel Garrard, Bart of Herts. (3) John Coppin in consideration of natural love and affection for John Coppin his only surviving son and for Mary Coppin his only daughter for settling freehold estates did grant to John Napier and Henshaw Halsey the manor of Market Cell Herts etc., etc., remainder to John Coppin yr. for 99 years and after the death of John Coppin yr to the use of Henry Hoo Keate and Samuel Garrard for 600 years raising portions for the daughters of John Coppin yr. and son of John Coppin yr. remainder to Mary Coppin and if she had any children to take the name Coppin whom failing to Samuel Coppin of London brother of John Coppin elder whom failing to Joseph Reynardson of London to take name Coppin, remainder to Zepheniah Pierce of East Horden, Essex clerk to take name Coppin with remainder to John Pierce clerk son of said Zepheniah remainder to William Pittman clerk to take name Coppin, remainder to your Orator
John Pittman Coppin elder by the name of John Pittman son of said William Pittman remainder to John Coppin the elder and his heirs for ever. (Here follows property of John Coppin eld. his Will 20th Oct., 1737. Codicil 27th July, 1741 (refers to above). John Coppin died 1742 (P.C.C.) and Mary Coppin took possession of Caddington manor till her death which happened in life time of John Coppin yr. her brother, she died unmarried, and John Coppin yr entered and enjoyed till his death, he died s.p. so Samuel Coppin became heir and enjoyed till his death several years ago, and Samuel having no issue male the property came to said Joseph Reynardson who entered and took name Coppin, he died 31st Jan., 1781 s.p.m.

That Zepheniah Pierce and John Pierce and William Pittman died in life time of J. R. That John Pierce had no issue male and therefore your Orator John Pittman Coppin the elder became entitled to all the said manors and your Orator John Coppin Pittman Coppin yr being only son of J. P. C. is entitled to remainder. That your Orator on death of Joseph Reynardson took name Coppin. But Joseph Reynardson made his Will and left to his servant Ann Fernyhough leasehold estate called Caddington Major and made said Ann F. and his sisters Ann and Susan Reynardson executrices and after his death they or some of them entered the manor of C. major.

Note This file contains another Bill of John Pittman Coppin dated 20th Nov., 1781 which apparently is much the same as above.

Answer of Ann Fernyhough, Ann and Susan Reynardson dated 4th Oct. 1782 re Caddington Major etc. refers to agreement between Sam. Coppin and Rev. Wm. Pittman D.D. Vicar of Kenworth dated 1st March, 1757. Joseph Reynardson who took the name Coppin was a Turkey merchant in London.

Answer dated 30th Dec., 1783 of Eliz. Browne widow and William Mills Esq. the Exor of George Browne Esq deceased one of the defendants. George Browne was a wine merchant in Tower Hill.

ORATOR John Pittman of Cheddington, Bucks clerk. v. Thomas Baldwyn.

That by Indent of lease and release 24th June, 1756 between Thomas Baldwyn of Ashwell Herts gent second son of the devisee's named in Will of Ralph Baldwyn elder of Ashwell decd. of 1st. part William Baldwyn of Tattenhoe Beds, gent since decd. (the 4th son of said R. B.) of the 2nd. part, Lewyns Boldero of Gough Square, London Esq. of 3rd. part, Edward Gale Boldero the yr of Grays Inn gent of 4th part, William Pittman of that part of Market Street which lies in the parish of Studham Beds. D.D. since decd. and your Orator (eldest son and heir of said William by Mary his wife decd. and great nephew and heir apparent of Thomas and William Baldwyn of 5th part, and John Overhall of Ashwell yeoman one of the nephews of said Thos. and Wm. Baldwyn of the 6th part, after reciting that the messuages etc. did by Will of Ralph Baldwyn dated 12th Aug., 1693 stand settled to use of said Thomas Baldwyn as follows "To my second son Thos. B. for life I give and devise the said Manor lands etc. to John Griffin and John Buxton during the life of said Thos. B., with remainders to the sons of sd. Thos. B. in Tail Male. with remainder to use of William B. and the heirs of his body" and in consideration of the sum of 10/- to be paid to Thos. B. by said Lewyn Boldero etc. he Thos. B. did convey the said estate in Ashwell then in the tenure of Thos. B. (here follows description of the property and of adjoining owners etc.) which was the estate and inheritance of Ralph Baldwyn the elder decd. devised by his Will To hold to use of Lewyn Boldero during the life of Thos. Baldwyn etc. so that a common Recovery might be suffered to the uses as declared by said Indent. viz. to use of Thos. Baldwyn and after to use of William B. and failing issue to use of William Pittman and his heirs subject to an annuity of £15 12s. 0d. to John Overhall then to use of your Orator and his heirs and clause as to power to make leases for 15 years, and a common recovery was made and said Thos. B. is now 80 and unmarried and being very infirm has for some years past employed George Soby of Ashwell yeoman as a Bailiff and is under his power and Geo. S. having taken a dislike to your Orator has persuaded Thos. B. to cut down the timber val. £200.

But now Thos. B. confederating by influence of Geo. Saby about 12th Mar., 1766 wrote to your Orator a letter saying he had power to do what he liked—all of which is to the damage of your Orator who hath a reversion in the estate. In tender consideration etc to issue subpoena to Thomas Baldwyn.

Pittman. Pittman v. Pearse. Chancery proceedings (Index "Whittington and Sewell") Div. IV. bundle 343. Dated 4th Nov., 1763.

Hester Pittman of Gillingham co. Dorset, petitioner asks for a writ against Alice widow of John Pearse. She recounts that Wm. Hancock, Yeoman, of Chitoe or Chitway Wilts had a 99 yrs. lease of property there—or for the joint lives of Edward, Alice and Mary Rudman —dated 1726. That he died and left as his sole Exor. (and devisee apparently) Alice wife of John Pearse of Chitoe gent. since deceased. (She may be Alice Rudman though it is said that at Wm. Hancock's decease Ed. Alice and Mary Rudman were living.) John Pearse entered into possession in right of his wife and needing money to pay the testator's debts borrowed (in 1751) £300 of petitioner at 4% secured on a mortgage—and later died. Petitioner has tried to recover principal and interest but defendant repudiates transeaction and alternatively alleges that debts has been substantially repaid. (Examined B.G.B. Apr., 1918.)

There is a place called Cornwell in co. Oxon. Genealogical Mag. VI. 33. VII. 98. (and perhaps III 225. and IV 76 my note is ambiguous). Jos. Foster's "London Marr. Lic." no refs. that are possible—ditto Harl. Soc. Pub. XXVI (as regards the 3 brothers.)

Davies. 5 letters of Wm. Davies lent by Mrs. Butler (see correspondence.)

Oh my Dear Madm,

Did you know the Sentiments of my heart you would not be so severe, consult your friends and I am sure they'll tell you, that what has happened can be only the effect of my great love for you, and not the least dislike for I yet never loved woman so well, nor never can another, and as you yet tell me you have no envious thoughts of me, but will do me justice in respect to my behaviour, if you think you can have any Esteem for me, Waive all contrary thoughts and make me a happy man. I cannot avoid being the last in writing, and if I never can be so happy to have another letter from you may God Almighty preserve you, and make you ten thousand times happier than ever I have power to do, I yet have all your letters, and if I am never to have another, I shall tho' with great unwillingness comply with your request, if your thoughts can be altered, I shall hope you'll comply with my last letter and let me see you as soon as possible. I am all in confusion, fearing this may be the last I shall ever trouble you with, surely you can forgive, and believe me once more your constant admirer and most obedient humble Servant,

Willm Davies.

My Dear,

I wrote you a letter by the Canterbury where I owned the receipt of your three last letters of 5th, 12th Janry and 10th febry how I was rejoiced at your being brought to bed of a girl but as she (the ship Canterbury) is since put back this may come first to your hands, for it goes by a packett, which brought an express to Adml. Maddeck acquainting him of the great preparations the Spaniards are making to attack Port Mahon, which Sir Chaloner Oyle opening, thinks proper to proceed thither, with all our ships, except four, I am one of the number that goes with him so that for the future till you hear from me again you must direct to Port Mahon, but send to Mr. Phillipson for his conveyance as usuall. I am told we may have letters brought there by the post in 11 days from England so that I hope to hear more frequently from you, and you from me. I shall omit no opportunity. I must again repeat my joy to you in making me the Father of two fine Girls, which I hope will be a comfort to us both, all our days, and hope this will find you all well, I long to know my new daughter's name. and who were the responcers, who were with you at the time, and when you think of going to Chatham pray convey (?) my duty and Love as due there wishing them all great joy in a new relation. I thank God I have been (?) well, since my being here which is now near two months, we are obliged to carry all our sick men with us, that are fitt to take aboard, but they must be put ashore again at Mahon, tho' I hope fair weather will soon recover them; but I have lost above thirty and fear shall many more, so that I am now much short of my number, we shall sail for Mahon in a day or two, and believe our passage thither may be about a week so that upon receipt of this you must direct to me at Port

Mahon, on the Island of Minorca, and send it to Phillipson, for his forwarding, my Blessing to my children, and duty and Service as due, and I am My Dearest life

My Dear,

After ye Joy you gave me to hear you were at Portsmouth, I have hourly expected you off, but am afraid the wind was too high for you to Venture, as I am that no body assisted you in getting one of the Dock Vessels, No Captn can come ashore, nor no barge, or you may be assured you'd have seen me, if either of the children are with you, I don't think it will be safe for them to come off, for fear of Cold, but you must bring some maid for we have not a Woman aboard, and for (short word) bring me some Mutton and Veal, pease and Greens if to be had for I have only beef aboard, of fresh provisions butter I want and Tea, for breakfast. Mrs. Durell came aboard to her husband today, so that you will get an opportunity of going ashore when she does, by some Dock Vessel, I sent Mr. Phillips to you in the afternoon, and this comes by my longboat, who fetch Water, and a Lieut in her, to suffer no body to go ashore, I am sure my Dear meets with great Difficulties, and I with Vexation at our severe orders, but must Submit,

I am, My Dear, your most affectionate husband

My Dear,

I wrote you a letter the 4th Instt. wherein I acquainted you that I had the pleasure of receiving your two letters which gave me an account of your safe getting home with all your things, and that then we were getting under sail, which we did do, but were obliged to put back here again, on the 6th having met with dirty blowing Weather, but thank god little damage to our shipping, we are still daily in expectation of a wind to go, but I hope its part of our time designed to stay out so that we shall be the shorter in the Sea, and I hope still to return to Spithead the middle of next month. I hope my Dear has got such a Coachman as we designed to enable you to go to church at least, in your charriott, and sometimes to take an airing with the children, if you have such a man, and the Wheels are much worn, I would send them to London for new, and have the charriott painted and put in order, and then you may be enabled to make use of it, by hiring a pair of horses for leaders, either from Godleman (Godalming? or Jobbmen?), or Chertsey(?). I am glad to hear our friends are all well at Chatham, make them Compliments as due, and friends at Byfleet, I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you and am My Dearest Wife (life?) your ever affectionate husband Willm Davies.

My Dear,

I have the pleasure of yours of the 31st of August, and am glad to find you are all well at Home. I find my grandfather is dead as you expected, he was a great age, and we must all Submit to that fate, in your next I hope to hear, how he has settled his affairs, I have never failed writing to my Dear, once a week. and hope you recd. my last of the 29th past, which was the first post day after I came in, and am now to Acquaint you that we are going to sail again the wind being come just fair, I had yesterday a Lieut Collenell, five (?) officers more, and 145 soldiers put aboard of me to go the Expedition, the other ships are fitted in the same proportion, but I still think I shall have the happyness of seeing you before this Month is out. I hope will ever think I must always approve of your conduct in your family affairs, and that I am assured you are rather too frugall, but must repeat my desire to you to want nothing and make your time as agreeable as you can, till please god to give us a meeting and then I am determined to stay ashore till I get my limbs better, no/so I think they are much the same, otherwise I am grandly (??) well. We are just getting under sail so must conclude with my Blessing to my little ones, and compliments elsewhere as due and I am My Dearest life, your ever affectionate husband, Willm. Davies. All my notes are from Capt. Carter (see Carter). "The family is not given in Vivian's "Cornwall" as a family though there are many refs. to them, but the Wortham Dinhams are in his Devon Visitation. The family was of great influence in pre Tudor days but declined and is only represented now by very small folk. I have only skimmed what might be relevant from Capt. Carters notes (largely furnished him by Mr. Hoblyn) as their volume and extent are impossibly large.

FROGGATT.

From a newspaper cutting—that delightful old House (i.e. Inn) on the Kent and Sussex border; the Middle House of Mayfield." This seems to be no more than a very curious coincidence.

Harl. Soc. XXXIX. XL. They were small gentry farmers in the Hagg. J. Tilley "Old Halls, Manors and Families of Derbyshire" Vol III gives a fairly detailed account of "The Hagg" which seems to be both a house and an estate. I am uncertain whether the F.'s inhabited the house (which seems to be a sort of dower house of the Freschville's). He does not mention them at all. Glover's (S) "Directory. of co. Derby" for 1829 gives "Richard Frogatt. farmer"; and modern directories of Staveley ignore the name "a Hagg is a shaw, spinney, small tree plantation."

The following are ALL the entries in Paver's Marr. Lics.

1661. Geo. Froggitt, mercht. and Eliz. Tripp. Trinity, Hull.—there.
1711. Thos. F. Clerk. Riccall and Martha Robinson spr. 23. Cawood—at Kirk Deighton, Acomb or Wheldrake.

1672. John Frogatt, gent. 30. Staveley co. Derby. and Eliz. Amy (?) spr. 21. York.—at Darfield or Darrington.

There is a "Froggatt Edge" near Grindleford in the "Peak" district co. Derby. No ref. to the name in Edmondson's Heraldry.

GIBSON of Westmorland and of Doncaster

The Gibsons of Whelprigg arrive in Westmorland about the date of the first Edmund, and are, traditionally, descended of the Scots house (who bear quite different arms.) The Yorkshire Gibsons seem to be of some connection as, though their arms are wholly different—they use the Stork crest. It is evident that the Gs. of Doncaster claim the same descent as those of Westd. since they use the 3 Stork arms. Since they could have affiliated themselves more plausibly to the more prosperous Yorkshire house this has some weight. The Crest of the Scots house is a Pelican vulning herself— which bears a faint resemblance to Storks. I fear that pretty exhaustive enquiry has been made already into the Bishop's antecedents, and it will not be easy to find more.

Abstract of the Will of Cuthbert Gibson of Doncaster in the county of York, gentleman. 10th Aug., 1692. I give all my goods and chattels whatsoever to my son George Gibson. whom I make executor. Witnesses Elizabeth Binsdall, William Kellam, Richard Graveley. Proved on the 30th Apr., 1693 by George Gibson of Doncaster, the son and sole executor.

(Chanc. Proc. before 1714. Bridges 32/44) 1657. Gibson, Cuthbert and Alice his wife, of Doncaster, Yorks. at the suit of Wm. Wade, Dionis Wade, Robt. Burrows and Wm. Maddocks. Deft. Alice Gibson sister by the half-blood of Isabel Hayford of Doncaster, widow, who died intestate in Apr., 1651. Admon. to Wm. Wade of Doncaster, Alderman, or Dyonis Wade his brother, to the use of Alice, then a minor. Sibill Wade grandmother to said Isabel and Alice (procured ??) admon. Said Isabel relict of Thos. Hayford late of Doncaster, Innkeeper, will 4th May, 1648. She died intestate 18th March, 1630 (1650?). In May 1656 Sybell Wade the grandmother died intestate. She was mother of plaintiffs Wm. and Dyonis Wade. Plaintiff Wm. Wade took Admon. John Raysin and Margt. his wife succeeded to the Inn, and on his death plaintiff Wm. Maddocks is now keeper of the same. Sworn 20th Jan., 1657/8.

The note of marr. of a Cuthbert Gibson and Margery—at St. Nich. Durham. 1548 has no relevance.

(The above Chancery Suit etc. communicated by Mr. G. Sherwood.)

Arms (letter from Athlone Herald 1909) of Sir Wm. G. Argent on a chevron Sable three roses of the Field. Crest. A squirrel sejant Gules holding between the paws a nut. Or. Vivian's "Devon" p. 405. gives ped. of Gilbert with almost the same arms, and Harl. Visit. Essex p. 405 another family with somewhat similar arms. The authority for the descent of Gilbert from Castillion, St. Leger, Pigott, Peyton, and Palmer is (1) a letter 1909 from Ulster King at Arms to Col E. Lambart. (2) Genealogist. N.S. XVII. 203.

Apparently a migration from the Cambs. family. Ashwell is in the extreme north of Herts. in a peninsular jutting into Cambs. (It is only a few miles from Baldock, also.) Wm. Godfrey alias Cowper gen. was among the gentlemen of Herts who contributed (£25) to the defence against the Armada. A bookseller (R. Atkinson. 188 Peckham Rye. Cat. No. 72. 1927) lists "Old Deeds..... Wm. Godfrey of London generosus; release to Thos. Saunders of Marston Morton, co. Beds. yeom. messuage etc. in Cranfield, Beds. held of the Queen in free socage by fealty as of the Manor of East Greenwich. Godfrey appoints Wm. Silles of Marston Morton his attorney. 7th May, 16 Eliz. (1574.)" from which it appears that a branch of the family had been long resident in Beds. Note that the Pearces also came from Marston Morteyn. Herts. Par. Reg. John Pitman marr. Eliz. Godfrey by lic. Knebworth 1709. Francis G. of Ashwell (father of our John) had a dau. Eliz. of exactly right age but she is recorded as marrying Lilly. That might be second marr.

Surrey Merchant as true will of decd. Stephen Godin late of St. Peter le Poor, London. Pr. P.C.C. 6th Dec., 1729 by son Stephen Peter Godin.

This is rather a queer case. The Gooderes went down in the world about 1660. J. Foster in "Collect. Geneal." I. 27. mentions Sarah Pennington (whose ped. is given—of Henham, Essex and Amersham, Bucks) living 1660 and 1664 the wife of Thos. Goodyear. As Pennington Goodere was born about 1666 and as the combination of names is so uncommon we may assume her to be the dau. of this union, but I can't connect Thos. G. onto any known genealogy. F. C. Cass in his "Monken Hadley" (parish) gives an exhaustive account of the Ld. Muncaster Penningtons and other genealogies are in Berry's "Herts. peds." 186. Harl. Soc. Pubs. IV. 175. XII : 67. XXII. 8. and 58 and Burke's "Extinct Barts." It is too late to be relevant to our enquiry but for dramatic murder see "Trials of Goodere, Mahon, and White for the murder of Sir Dineley Goodere on board H. M. Ship Ruby, at the Sessions at Bristol." 1741. folio.

The ground work of this ped. is obtained from 4 articles written by Rev. Geo. Crabbe of Merton. The first two are "Report on the Muniments at Merton Hall" and pubd. in the Norf. Antiqu. Miscellany, the third is "Robt. de Grey, recusant" pubd. Norf. and Norwich Arch. Soc. and the fourth is "The de Greys of Little Cornard" pubd. Journal Suff. Arch. Soc. The four articles extend to 280 pages and quote all refs. See also "Ancestor" X. 43. "Suffolk in XVII Century" by Ld. Fr. Hervey (Murray 1902) says "Temp Hen. III Sir. Thos. de Grey bore Azure, a Fess between 2 chevrons Or. A label Gules" and Sir Rich. Cornerd the same without the Label.

There is some sort of muddle here. Surtees' "Hist. Durham" IVb. 154. gives Margery as d. of John H. and Eliz. Richardson; as does Jos. Foster's "Visitations of Durham" but Surtees is another place (II. 291) refers to a Margery bapt. 31st June, 1699 as d. of Joseph Hall of Durham. gent. and Frances Gibson. See also III. 207 for the Lincs. Halls and JI. 215, 297, 323 for the Durham family as also, probably, I. 99. and IV. 154. There seems to be a third family—to judge by arms—I. 121. Both Lincs and Durham families use John and Margery and both had cadet branches co-existent in the City of Durham. The descent Atkinson-Richardson-Hall is pretty certainly correct as it was used as proof of heirship on failure of Richardson line male.

HARGREAVES

Edmondson gives "Hargrave of Lincs." Azure a fess Argent, Fretty Gules, between 3 stags in full course Or attired of second."

The early history of this family is in violent dispute; see H. Round in "Ancestor" III (The story of a great forgery) a reply to Col. Edgar Lambert's "Leaves from a Family Tree." Also Whitaker's "Hist. of Craven," "Genealogist" VI. 263. J. W. Morkill's "Kirby Malhamdale," "Misc. Gen. et Her." 4 Ser. IV. 207. "Universal Mag." 1762-4. p. 580 (pensions). "Gents. Mag." Mar. 1821 "At Eaglehurst, the Countess of Cavan; of a dau." and 8th July, 1782. 'Earl of Cavan to Miss Gould youngest dau. of Sir Hy. Gould Kt.' "Yorks Arch. and Topog." part XLV. 1892 and part XXXVI. (1886.) A lot of ink has been spilt through failure to recognise the fact that Lambert was a common first name (e.g. Lambert Simnel) from the Middle Ages to the Tudors.

The Lambert family have been remarkable for producing an amazing crop of soldiers, several of them of eminence. In other paths they have been as conspicuously unsuccessful.

Sir Hy. Boynton—one of the Bethells' nearest country neighbours marr. Harriet 2nd. d. of Thos. Lightfoot of Seven Oaks, Kent, niece of Mrs. Bethell (da. of her eld. brother.) They always claimed kin, I am told, to J. B. Lightfoot Bp. of Durham and he put a M.I. brass in St. Munden Ch. to his ancestors John Lightfoot 1602-1675, (2nd. son of Thos. L. Curate of Stoke on Trent who died 21st July, 1658 Rector of Uttoxeter aet. 81.) He was Vice Chancellor of Cambridge 1654. Very long and full account in D.N.B.

Thos. L. of St. Andrew's, Holborn, Was Master in Apprenticeship Indentures 1712 ("barber") and 1723 ("barber and periwig maker.") Holborn was the Harley St. of the day and the Barber Surgeon was a medico so he might well be father of a doctor. Is there a sly jest in the Bishop of Durham's second Baptismal name Joseph Barber Lightfoot? Almost every imaginable ref. has been tried and I have a huge mass of notes (too much to publish till I know what is relevant). Gents. Mag. 1731. Ob. 4th Sept. Miss Kitty L. niece of late Judge L.— in Hatton Gdn.

NELSON 33

I have a great quantity of notes of Nelsons but until the Deeds can be re-examined (to do which I have the present owner's permission) and reconciled with Wills and Reg. entries it is impossible to say what is relevant. The Nelsons and their neighbours the Rycrofts were prolific families of very minor farming gentry/yeomen. They all used the same Christian names and there were often 3 families co-existent in one parish and all breeding contemporaneously—so reg. entries are little use.

Will of John Nelson of par. of St. Andrew, Holborn, London, Apothacary. To wife Mary all furniture etc. in certain rooms of testator's house at Corner of Hatton Yard, Holborn, (but not plate or china), and £40 annuity charged on estate lately purchased in Clarges St. par. St. George's Hanover Sq. London unless she sues for dower. Eldest son John. To John Lupton of Chancery lane, Middx. Apothecary and Richd. Nelson of Calton near Skipton in Craven co. York Gent. £1500 in trust for youngest son Rich. Nelson to be invested in Public Funds or mortgage. Proceeds to educate and maintain said Richd. till 23 when to him absolutely. Above trustees guardians of both sons—and exors.

Will dated 26th Mar., 1752. Witnessed, Joseph Dobbins, Jno. Gray, Jno. Wilson. Pr. P.C.C. 15th May, 1753.

Note It is a little uncertain whether Residual Estate which is left to eldest son John is in trust or an absolute legacy.

Note. John N. of Leadenhall Market, barrowman. Will pr. P.C.C. 2nd Feb., 1753. Son John. Avoid Confusing. John the elder son of our testr. is very possibly that John N. nat. 1710 ob. 1794 Apothecary of Lion Sq. Holborn (Dict. Nat. Biog.)—if his father had established him in his practice it would account for the large bequest to the younger son. On the other hand if John was born 1710 it is rather strange that his only brother should be under age in 1752.

Will of Richard Nelson senr. of Calton, co. York, Yeoman. 19th Nov., 1725. entered York, 1st June, 1728. My cousin John Fish of Calton, gent. My brother in law Henry Tomlinson and my cousin Chrisr. All the above 6 wills from A. S. Scott Gatty. York Herald to Rev. E. H. Rycroft. In his letter 11th May, 1896 he says "I enclose you the result of my enquiries at York and you will see that the pedigree could undoubtedly be carried back a good distance if only we could get the Register extracts from Kirkby Malhamdale. These we must have if I am to make any further researches. I have not attempted to search back further than 1660 but I have very little doubt but what a lot more could be got."

51st year of his age. Eliz. wife of Thos. Pearse Junr. ob. 29th Oct.,
1720 in 56th year of her age.

These are the only Pearses in this parish or in Ampthill.—recorded in above book. No wills P.C.C. of either of above 1716/17 or 1720/21. Nor in Beds. Regrs. at Somerset Ho.

Will of Thos. Pearse of Ampthill co. Beds. yeoman. 1st June, 1647.
To be buried Ampthill. To Henry P. son and heir of my brother Rich. P. clerk decd. property at Ampthill "where my brother Jeremy P. now resides after his death" (sic), also other lands in Ampthill and Blunham co. Beds. To Rich. P. one of the other sons of my said brother Rich. P. property in Ampthill where I now dwell—also another occupied by Wm. Mansfield—also land in Long Stangate in par. of Maulden (?) in said county—also part right in land at Pinfold Hill in Ampthill. To Ann P. da. of said bro. Richd. £100 when of age or marr. with reversion if she dies before that to "the children of my sister Eliz. Baylie. To Jeremy Bailie, Eliz. Richardson and Sara and Francis Bailie £20 each. To sister Mary Wheeler £10. To poor of Ampthill £5 and £1 "that was my said bro. Rich's guift." To poor of Ravensdon (?), to poor of Blunham £2. To two servants £5 each. Wearing apparel to be provided for kinsman Henrie P. "according to my promise." My sister Eliz. to have the bringing up of said Ann P. till of age or marrd.—£8 a year for her maintenance. To said Eliz. Richardson one heifer or bullock. Said Rich. P. to be well brought up and educated—maintenance out of the estate. Said Henry P. and Richd. P. "my kinsmen" exors. "Loving bro. Jeremy P. aforesaid of Ampthill" to be guardian of said Henry P. Richd. P. and Ann P. with very wide powers (I think he has a life interest in the whole estate.) Wit Thos. Arnold (?) Robt. Clarke, Thos. Arnold (?) Junr. Pr. P.C.C. 1651. (entered at least in Reg. "Grey. 52" but no note of grant of Probate.)

He seems to have been a well to do man. Lot of land "lately purchased by me." Registered transcript very hard to read.

Will of George Pearse the elder of Mentmore co. Bucks Esq. 11th Apr., 1760. To wife Ann property at Northall parish of Edlesborough co. Bucks bought of Thos. Stanbridge and Esther his wife—also at Mentmore bought of Wm. Goodson—this for life—afterwards to eldest son Theed Pearse. To son George Pearse, da. Bridget wife of Wm. King and da. Mary Pearse £100 each and £10 for mourning. To poor or Marston Moretaine £5. Wife Anne and son Theed Pearse exors. Witnessed. Alley Partridge, John Fountain, W. Wilkinson. Pr. Arch. Bucks. 23rd Mar., 1771.

I propose the conjectural ped. for Pearse of Ampthill. (A.1) Thos. P. of Ampthill, yeoman. Will pr. P.C.C. 1651. Property in various parts of Beds. (A.2.) His brother Jeremy (A.3.) Another brother Rich. P. Clerk. ob. ante 1647 who left issue (infra), (A.4.) a sister Eliz. wife of Baylie having issue. (A.5.) a sister Mary wife of Wheeler. Rich P. (A.3.) the Clerk left—(B.1.) Hy. P. s. and h. in 1647. (B.2.) Rich. P. marriage in 1647. (B.....) "Other sons". and a daughter (B. dau.) Anne under age and unmarr. in 1647. It is highly probable that either Hy. P. (B.1.) or Rich. P. (B.2.) was father of that Thos. P. (ob. 1715/6 aet. 50) who with his wife Eliz. is buried Marston Morteyn and that these last were parents of George P.

RANDOLPH 231

"Some Colonial Mansions." Thos. Allen Glenn where long illustrated article. "Thos. Jefferson once said that the ancestry of the Randolphs could be traced far back in England and Scotland. Whatever knowledge he may have had of such a descent, however, has not been preserved to the present time, "but there seems" writes a genealogist "no reason to doubt the statement that Wm. R. the immigrant was a nephew of Thos. R. the poet." This statement first appeared in print in the year 1737 in the Virginia Gazette in a lengthy obituary of Sir John R. written while sons of the first Wm. were still living and the ped. preserved by the Va. family agrees with the account given by the poet's biographers. The following genealogy of the family is given in a recent pubn. Robert R. marr. Rosa Roberts and had Wm. R. of Harris near Lewes, Sussex marr. Eliz. da. Thos. Smith of Newnham, Northants. and had (1) Thos. R. the Poet and Dramatist born Newnham 15th June, 1605. Fellow Trin. Coll. Camb. ob. Mar., 1634. (2) (omitted) (3) Wm. R. marr. (4th. wife) Dorothy da. Richard Law and had Wm. R. the Virginia settler. According to M. D. Conway, Wm. R. the immigrant was a son of Rich R. of Morton-Morell co. Warwick who was a half brother of the poet Thos. and Hy. R. of Henrico co. was his uncle and came to Va. in 1743 (Glenn) Arms. In 1698 Wm. R. used a seal bearing "Gu. upon a cross or five mullets of field."

"Virginia Heraldica." Wm. A. Crozier (1908) says. The pedigree of the Virginia Rs. is as follows

Robert R. of Hams, Sussex was father of Wm. R. of co. Northants. born 1572 who was father of Richard R. born 21st Feb., 1621. ob. Dublin 1671 Marr. Eliz. da. Richard Ryland co. Warwick and was father of Richard, R. 2nd son. nat. 1651 ob. 11th April, 1711. came to Va. about 1660 and succeeded his uncle Hy R. (who immigrated 1643—a lot more detail) marr. Mary da. Hy. Isham of of Bermuda Hundred.

I think that Richard given above as the Christian name of the immigrant must be a slip as his name (vide his tomb stone) was certainly Wm.

READE

"A Record of the Redes" by Compton Read quoted in an article in Genealogical Mag. Vol. IV. p. 99. which refers to Chatterbuck's "Herts" as a source of information. See also articles on Cornewalls in same publication vols. VI and VII.

"The authentic records of this Berks and Oxon family begin with Thos. Reade of Abingdon before that there is only surmise and tradition; the most persistent tradition, that which connects the family with the Redes of Northumberland, having apparently no better ground than the resemblance between the Arms. gu. a saltire between 4 garbs or granted to the Berkshire Reades in 1597 and the chevron between 3 garbs borne by the Redes of Troughe in Redesdale, Northumberland. This Thomas Reade, whatever his origin, became before his death a man of property, partly by inheritance from the Audeletts of Abingdon, who speak of him as a "cousin" and partly by purchase." Mr. Austin Hopkinson, M.P. for Mossley division of Lancashire, is practising his ideals with ruthless vigour. He has just left his £30,000 mansion and gone to live on the canal side in an old barn which he has converted into a neat little bungalow.

He gave the mansion, Ryecroft Hall, Audenshaw, to the local council.

A special interest is always attached to a novelist whose works are identified with a definite locality. Halliwell Sutcliffe, many of the most famous beauty spots of the Yorkshire Dales appear in his writings.

"Rylstone village, clean between clean hills," form the principal setting for "Pam the Fiddler," and here, too, occur striking incidents in "Ricroft of Withens".

P.C.C.* 15th July, 1786 by Exors.

Note. The witnesses are obviously a firm of Solicitors (of Lincoln's Inn) and their clerks. Geo. Burley partner or successor to Mr. Goostrey. Wm. Morgan still one of the clerks.

The immediate ped. seems to be— (A.1.) Henry Rycroft of Coniston Cold. Yeoman Will pr. York 10th June, 1728 marr. Anne (living 1745) and was father of (B.1.) Thos. R. of Coniston Cold. gent. who was father of Mary, Anne, and Eliz. A second son (B.2.) John R. of Coniston who was father of Alice, Mary, Hannah and Cath. And a third son (B.3.) Henry R. Clerk, Of Kirkby Stephen, Westmorland. Property in Cold Coniston and near Richmond, Yorks. Nat. Cold Coniston circa 1701. Will pr. York. Dec., 1746. Apparently marr. first Alice ob. 31st March, 1743 aet. 55. (M.I.) and secondly Agnes dau. of John Moss of Kaber (living 1745). They evidently ob. s. p. v.

I have a very amplified version of the Stonyer, Stonier, Stanier of Biddulph family but it is too much to print as it doesn't help the ancestry of Rich. Stonehewer who was, evidently a collateral, probably of a very cadet branch. This Rich. S. (A.1.) Secy. to Bp. Crewe (probably ob. circa 1722) marr. a Billingsley and had; Rich. (B.1.) marr. 1723. St. Margts. Durham Margery Hall. John (B.2.) Bapt. 8th Dec., 1696. Sepult. 9th May, 1697. Mary (B.3.) Bapt. 5th Apr., 1698. Sepult. 18th Feb., 1699. Penelope (B.4.) Bapt. 5th Nov., 1700. Thos. (B.5.) Bapt. 16th Dec., 1701 and is probably the "Thos. S. son of Rich. sepult. Durham Cath. 22nd Nov., 1724" Wm. (B.6.) Bapt. 29th Jan., 1702. and possibly Eliz. (B.7.?) who marr. John Faucett Recorder of Durham (but she may be a sister of "cousin Richard.") All the above at St. Mary le Bow. Durham where not stated otherwise. Of these—Rich. (B.1.) and Margery Hall had—Rich. (C.1.) nat. circa 1728 (see D.N.B.) Marjory (C.2.) marr. John Bright of Durham. Eliz. (C.3.) marr. as 2nd. wife Nich. Halhead and ob. s. p. (This is certainly wrong—see note to Hall. Perhaps Marjory and Eliz. have got each other's husbands.) Penelope (C.4.) Bapt. about 1734. Marr. Sir. R. Rycroft. Also living in Durham is a Richard Stonhewer contemporary with our second Richd. we may call him (B.B.1.) He marr. 1719 at Washington (by his ? cousin ? Rich. S.) Anne Hendy and they had John (CC.1.) Bapt. 21st June, 1720. Rich. (CC.2.) Bapt. 15th Nov. Sepult. 28th Nov., 1722. Thos. (CC.3.) Bapt. 24th Apr., 1725. Anne (CC.4.) Bapt. 24th Oct., 1726. Rich. (the second) Bapt. 1st Aug., 1728. Sepult. 22nd Apr., 1729. (All St. Mary le Bow, Durham.)

Arms. Barry of 6 Or and Gules; in Chief a label of 5 points Argent. Crest. On a wreath a bow with string drawn and arrow ready to be discharged. The family has a tradition that their ancestor was bow stringer to the Conqueror (!!!) They probably were some sort of head Verderers to Hatfield Chase (Isle of Axholme—not Herts) whence they may derive their crest. Consult—Harl. Soc. Pub. Fam. Minor. Gent. 321. Rev. W. B. Stonehouse "Hist. Isle of Axholme" 1839. Ditto "Hist. and Topog. of Tetley Whitgift etc. Isle of Axholme; being that part of Lincs which is next the Trent." (Rev. G. Bethell of Eton subscribes for 4 copies, also Wm. Beckett of Doncaster. Rev. G. Beckett of Epsworth. Rev. J. Empson of Yokefleet. Wm. Empson Esq. of Inner Temple. Amaziah Empson Esq. of Spellow Hall. Wm. Hall Esq. of Hull. Thos. Lightfoot Esq. of London. Mrs. Mary Lightfoot of Thorp Arch. Two Stovins etc.) Hunter's "Deanery of Doncaster." Three Stovin-Empson marriages recorded; George S. (the Antiquary) son of Jas. the High Sheriff who marr. Sarah d. and h. of Jas. Empson of Gowle. "Tetley, from remote times has been the property of the family of Stovin for George S. declared (temp. Geo. 1.) that he was 8th or 9th in descent who had owned it. The George who marr.—Empson is stated to be 7th of the name." Hirst Priory is near Crowle.

Will of James Stovin of Crowle co. Lincs. Esq. 3rd Feb., 1731. Pr. P.C.C. 24th Nov., 1732. Refers frequently to lands left to him by his uncle Richd. Clarke Gent. Decd. Evidently considerable property in Yorks (manor of Hatfield etc.) and Lincs. (Crowle, Epworth etc.) some of it "recently purchased." Eld. son George who—for no reason stated—is mainly passed over in favour of his sons (George's) George and Jas. and his (George's) daus. Martha, Mary, Joan and Eliz. all under age. "4 Younger sons, Jas. Cornelius, Jonathan and Richd." Real estate to each. Refers to lands purchased of "my brother George St." "my bros. Jonathan and Benjamin St. and my kinsman Robt. St." "Jas. Empson of Hull." Refers to mortgage on estate of "John Clarke of Garthorpe co. Lincs. yeom." (who is living). Refers to "Jas. and Robt. Coakes during the life of Anne wife of Richd. Cl. their sister." To da. Susanna St. real estate plus £18000 when of age or marr. with consent of exors. bro. Jas. St. and friend Wm. Sampson. Grand children, Stovin Laycock—Eliz. L. Josh. L. Mary L. (son-in-law Jonathan Laycock and Mary his wife); Jas. St. son of said son Jas St.—Thos. and Anne Lister (da. Lister) £100 each. Kinswoman Anne Brown of Epworth £5.

Very long will. Harl. Soc. Pub. XL. 1242. and XXXVII. 321 say their dau. Anne marr. Thos Lister of Eastoft and 2ly John Cowley.

Arms. Argent; a chevron Sable between 3 fountains (or sykes) ppr. For a critical account of this family (which queries Rich. S. of Sykes Dyke near Carlisle) containing much detail, see "Genealogist" III 315 and 459. A note (H.L.B. no ref. given) says that Rich. Sykes of Sykes Dyke was father of Wm. S. (younger son) who was father of Rich. S. of Leeds who marr. 10th June, 1561 Sibil Reme, and was father of Rich. S. Alderman 1629 and 1636. Ob. 29th March, 1645. marr. 30th Jan., 1593 Eliz. Mawson (quae ob. 19th Aug., 1644) who was father of Wm. S. of Leeds; merchant, ob. 1652, marr. Grace d. and coh. of Mr. Josias Jenkinson of Leeds (ob. 25th Sept., 1685); parents of our Eliz.

TATNALL

I don't believe our Wm. came of the London branch at all —they were small people and of no account and Wm. obviously originated near the Cholmleys. Jos. Foster's "Lond. Marr. Lic." no refs. at all, nor in Harl. Soc. Pub. XXVI (ditto) Pepys (8th Mar., 1668) refers to a "Capt. Tatnell—in unflattering terms.

Britt. Mus. Add M.S.S. 19151. Suckling's Hist. Suff. II. 451 gives the M.I. to Wm. T. and his wife Mary (ob. 13th Mar., 1837.) The arms on the mont. are given as—"Quarterly 1 and 4 Azure a scimitar bendwise Or; Tatnall, 2 and 3. Gules three garbs impaling Azure two lion's ramp. endorsed or. Carter." Edmondson gives the first of these arms as "Tattall or Tatnall (Chesh. Bucks and of Withenshaw in Chesh." the second meant for Cholmley ?? and the third (except that the lions are combattant) as Carter of St. Cullumbe in Cornwall.—for Comyn B.L.G. 6 ed. Withenshaw co. Chesh. is the home of the Tattons (arms quarterly a crescent in each) and Ormerod does not mention Tattal or Tatnal—Tattenhall, a Chesh. par. seems a more probable derivation.

Thos. Tatnall mentioned (as his servant) in will of Rich. Cholmeley of Cholmley temp. H. VII. the youngr. apparently end of 16th Century. (Chetham Soc. Vol. 54) Visit. Chesh. (Harl. Soc.) gives arms of Tatnall as Azure a falchion in bend Argent hilt Or within a bordure engrailed of the last. and a small ped. of Tattenhall als Tatnall. Also (p. 221) includes a place and heading for the family. The M.S.S. ped. has a pencilled suggestion of Cholmondeley as wife to Wm. T. The Ch. arms are "Gules in chief 2 helmets and in base a garb Or." Withenshaw is in the extreme corner of Chesh. (near Manchester) where it touches Lancs. and Derby. The manor of Sapperton was sold 1675 to Adam Wolley of London, merchant whose son Adam had a da. and h. who marr. Thos. Yates and bought it to him. See Ormerod's Cheshire II 650 visitns (Harl. Soc.) the Ts. of which are all of that district. Edmondson in assigning to Wythenshaw probably confused with Tatton. No regis. par. of Burbary 1706-1725.

USHER

The only authority in Beckett family Bible which calls her “nat. d. of Francis Usher of Barnsley,” and Jos. Wilkinsons “Worthies . . . of Barnsley” which calls her “Margaret dau. of Mr. Francis Usher of Barnsley, mercer, a member of a family of local note.” See B.L.G. Usher of Eastwell (Margt. seems of a family name.) Rowland Jackson’s “Hist. of Barnsley” 112. and 167. J. Fosters “Visitn. Yorks” 350. “Ussher Memoirs” by Wm. B. Wright p. 3. Arms Argent; 3 lion’s paws couped and erect Sable. From the will of this Francis it is tolerably evident that Margaret is not legitimate—or is not his dau. at all.

Abstract of the will of Francis Usher of Barnsley in the county of York gentleman. Date 10th Oct., 1685. To John Usher my eldest son one shop with two chambers over the same in Barnsley. To Samuel Usher my second son, £30 and all my lands and tenements in Knottingley, one close called Great Shaw, and another called Far Smithy close. To my daughter Marie Teasdall £200 and one bedstead standing in the chamber over the hall. To my daughter Hannha Chappell £50. To my daughter Magdelen Usher £500 and one silver bowl. To Sara Usher my wife all the lands I settled upon her at my marriage during her life, and on her decease to John Usher my eldest son, also the sum of £120. To my grandchild Francis Usher, son of my son John Usher, one shop with two cellars under the Town Hall of Barnsley. To my grandchild Robert Usher the Far Smithy close (sic). To Thomas Mory and Hannah Teasdall my grandchildren, £50 apiece. To my grandchild Martha Usher £20. (struck out) To my grandchild John Teasdall, son of my daughter Marie £50. To my grandchild Isabell Chappell, daughter of Thomas Chappell £40. To Charles Usher my godson, son of my brother William Usher £10. To Robert Usher, son of my brother William Usher £5. To my two nieces, Catherine and Marie, daughters of my brother William £4 apiece. To my eldest son John Usher and my brother George Usher one bond of my cousin Richard Grice's of £9. To Thomas Littlewood my apprentice 50/-.

To John Prestly, my town apprentice, 20/-, to the poor of Barnsley £10, to my brother Longley, and my sisters, my cousin Richard Grice, my cousin Marie Grice, my cousin Thomas Grice, my cousin Frances Grice, my god-daughter, my brother Charles Usher and my sister, my brother George Usher and my sister, and each one of his children, that is to say sons and daughters then living, my sister Edith Usher of Featherstone, my brother-in-law Thomas Hunt, nephew Samuel Usher and his wife, my sister Jane Austwicke, my brother Austwicke, Alderman of Pontefract, and his wife, my cousin Thomas Austwicke and his sister Sara Austwicke, also my eldest son John Usher and his wife, my son-in-law Benjamin Teasdall and his wife, daughter Chappell, my son Samuel, my son Francis and my daughter Magdelen Usher, each of them a gold ring. To my wife 20/-, the residue of my goods I give to my children. Executors:—my son John Usher and brother George Usher of Adwalton, to my son John Usher and brother George £40 each, to Mr. William Baigulay 20/-, to Richard Grice 20/- I appoint the said William Baigaley and Richard Grice supervisors. To Edward Wood of Miston in Nottinghamshire, son of Leonard Wood of Barnsley, £10, to Isabell Slack £5. Witnesses:—William Bagulay, Thomas Ludham, Christopher Hayford, Ann Parkin. See also Burke's Landed Gentry (6th. Edn) "W. of Crofton" and—for the early descent of what is almost certainly the parent house—ditto (or 8th. edn.) "W. of Broomhead." There is an anecdote of Ws. of Leeds in Wm. Smith's "Old Yorkshire" p. 242. The Yorkshire Arch. Journal V 69 has a long article on W. of Broomhead (near Sheffield). Jos. Foster's "Yorks. Co. Families" gives tabular ped. Berry's Sussex Genealogies gives ped. of W. of Elton co. Yorks. Good ped. W. of Eshton co. Yorks in Whitaker's Hist. of Craven and of W. of Broomhall in Hunter's Hallamshire. W. of Elton see Sussex Arch. Coll. XII 240. "Wilson of High Wray and Kendal" Jos. (ed. S. B. Foster) Foster, but it is most oddly arranged and does not seem to contain any of our lot. but see Nicolson and Burn's Hist. Westd. and Cumbd. I. 248.

There are a great number of families all over the country—the great majority use undifferenced, or slightly differenced, the wolf arms. As I cannot conceive that there is blood connection in all cases these are pirated. They appear originally to belong to Wilson of Elton or Eshton co. Ebor. The Leeds Ws. are almost certainly cadets of W. of Broomhead—an old yeoman family dating (very complete evidence) from Ed. 1. They claim to be of the same stock as the Elton family but this is improbable and at any rate unproven. The Westmorland Ws. are traditionally descended from the Scotch Family.

The business must have increased rapidly for we find that in the year 1789 the following firms had sprung into existence John Wilson (nephew of the founder) Joseph Beckett "Memoirs of Wm. A letter Sept., 1910 refers to a small portrait (apparently early XVIII century) of a Bouwens in a room off the Hall of the Golden Fleece at Bruges.

Arms. Sable; a lion rampant Or; tooth and claw Gules. But in the grant of Chevalier 17th Mar., 1653 to Albert Bauwens van der Boye or in that of the Barony of Nerysse (since extinct) to his son 30th Aug., 1691. It is stated that "the arms of this family ARE" (not a new grant) Sable; a leopard lionne Or armed and lampasse Gules. These arms seem to have been borne by a succession of Burgomasters and other officials unquestioned—and, as was said to me, society is too small in Holland (and certainly was in XVII century) to impose on your neighbours. Supposing the arms to date from the days of real armour it is a suggestive fact that they so very closely resemble those of the Baldwins Counts of Flanders. Bouwens is, of course, Bauderwinzoon—Bauderwinsz—Bouwens and is simply Baldwinson—shortened to Baldwins. The Revolution which removed the Spanish yoke from the Provinces resulted in the destruction of practically all archives private or public and of all monuments whether in Churches or elsewhere. The special ferocity of Alva was directed against Churches and Town Halls—the one the home of dissent in religion and the other of dissent in Civil Government. Only very important houses (e.g. Boetzelaer) could preserve more than a confused oral tradition of their origins before the cataclysm. A very large proportion of the dates have been verified (by L.H.B.) from certified copies of "Register entries" in various towns in Holland. The Crest was evidently a demi lion ramp. Or, but when J. C. P. Bouwens migrated to England he seems to have added 2 wings (which seem to be used in Holland by those knights. Ridder. who have no crest) and substituted a "coronet of noblesse" for the wreath. He was entitled to do so—but English seal makers and "heraldic artists" will insist on blazoning it as "out of a Ducal Coronet" which is bosh.

Will of Anna Maria Bouwens widow of Rt. Hon. and Aufull Sir Adam Jacob Smits. Translated from Nether Dutch. Abstract out of the Registers of Closed Wills at Nymegen beginning year 1742. Will of Johannes Bouwens and his wife Catherina Pels. On 9th Mar., 1686. before John Backer Notary Public at Amsterdam appeared Mr. Johannes Bouwens Merchant and Mme. Catherina Pels married persons dwelling on the Keyser's Graft in this City and make their will as follows. Refer to an ante nuptial bond which the birth of a child will render one of Full Community of Goods according to the laws of these lands. Survivor to have all estate till remarriage—apparently absolutely—but to make such provision as seems proper for each child on reaching 25 or on marriage with consent. In case of remarriage of survivor $\frac{1}{2}$ estate goes to children of original marriage. If no issue ante nuptial articles confirmed. Mentions Mme. Agneta Bouwens his sister. Mr. Joan Pels her father; and her brothers. Main object seems to be to evade "the Worshipfull Orphan Masters" and also "all other Higher and Lower Rulers."

"Although the ancestor of this family, belonging to the Danish nobility, known to us, was born at Hamburg, it appears most likely that their origin must be traced to Denmark. Various petrician families of that name have lived in Belguim (St. Truyen en Luik [Lieges ? ?]) whose coats of arms not only differ completely from each other but also do not show the slightest resemblance to those of the various branches which have been received into the Danish Nobility.

Compare Baron Léon de Herckenrode. "Collection de Tombes etc de Hesbaye" Ghent 1845 pp. 29, 263, 338, 717. J. B. Riestap. Armorial Général. Gouda. 1884 under Marcelis. A. J. van der Aa. Biographisch Woordenboek. under Marcelis. J. B. Rietstap in his "Coats of Arms of the Dutch Nobility" p. 364 mentions amongst other Marselis (Danish Nobility 17th Sept., 1643) Peter brother of Gabriel. The elephant carries on his back a turret from which a woman appears dressed in red and viewed sideways. Crest. The elephant, turret and woman. Gabriel van Marsalis received from Frederick III of Denmark 7th Sept., 1675 a patent of Nobility of which a translation follows—"We, Frederick III, by the Grace of God King of Norway, Denmark, of the Wenden and Goths, Duke of Schleswick Holstein, Stormarn, and of the Ditmarsch, Lord of Oldenburg and Delmenhorst etc we have shown Gabriel Marselis this special favour and granted him permission besides to all his present and future real life heirs, male and female, for all ages to come, to be of the rank and degree of Nobility of our Kingdom and domains granting him and his heirs male and female for now and ever afterwards the following coat of arms, in addition to any other coat of arms in his possession to wit the shield with a cross beam (i.e. quartered) divided into 4 parts with an open tournament helmet with a gold coloured crown (Crest) ; in the two red fields of the shield over against each other is an armoured man holding in his left hand a shield and in his right a pike; In the two blue fields against each other two metal cannons crossed and above them a gold coloured crown. In the centre a small shield with a white or silver field, a house covered with a slate roof. The shield and coat of arms held by two erect standing lions in natural colours as depicted in our letter 100 marks in gold to be paid by anyone insulting the aforesaid Gabriel van Marselis half of which is to be given to our chamber and the other half to Gabriel Marselis". The above grant signed "Frederick" has long been in the possession of the family of Marselis Hartsinck."

The whole of the above extract is from a pedigree of Marselis by A. A. Voorsterman van Oyen in the Alg. Nederlandsh Familieblad July-Aug. 1893 p. 185. who further states that the genealogy of the above Gabriel is taken from an M.S.S. pedigree in the possession of the Hoog Wel. Geb. Heer Ridder M. C. H. Burke's peerage and Landed Gentry. The Chiefs of Grant (by William Fraser. Edinburgh 1883) Three immense volumes containing 18 tabular pedigrees. An Account of the Rise and Offspring of the Name of Grant. Printed for Sir Archibald Grant Bart. of Monymast, 1876. Traces descent from Wodine "a certain Prince out of Asia" circa 600 (!) He appears to be Woden himself (!). p. 27-8. rather a nice tale of the begetting of the founder of the Glenmoriston line. The genealogy differs a good deal from that generally accepted. A brief account of the Family of Grant extracted from the Biographia Britannica. A brief account of the life of Sir Francis Grant, Lord Cullen. Not apparently of much interest. Major Alpin's ancestors and descendants. Pr. Print Aberdeen MCMIV. Note This book contains a capital bibliography re Grant of Glenmoriston. Contains a very full pedigree of Glenmoriston.

The Grants of Corrimony. F. J. Grant. Pr. Print. B.(?)erwick. 1895. Grants of Frenchie. Corrimony, Shanglie, Lochletter and Grant Lord Glenelf.

The Rulers of Strathspey. Lord Cassillis, Inverness, 1911. Only notices Glenmoriston in a short appendix.

Memoire Hist. et Gen. etc. de la Maison de Grant. Charles Grant 1796. Chiefly concerned with a branch who settled in Normandy in 14th. cent. and thence spread to other parts of France. All the above are in the Britt. Mus.
